ASSIGNMENT AND LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Agreement dated as of December 31, 1997 by and between Colgate-Palmolive Company, a Delaware corporation ("Colgate"), and Candle Corporation of America, a New York corporation ("Candle").

1. "Purchase Agreement" as used herein shall mean the Purchase Agreement, dated as of September 30, 1997, as amended as of December 31, 1997, between Colgate and Candle.
2. Colgate hereby sells, assigns and transfers to Candle its full right, title and interest in the patents and patent applications of Schedule 1 hereof, including the right to have patents issued to it in its name and to bring legal actions for the past infringement thereof and to retain all recoveries.
3. (a) "Colgate's Field of Use" as used herein shall mean oral care, personal care (including body deodorants and antiperspirants) and household cleaning products (including those containing a fragrance), but shall not include products used for warming, cooking, heating, lighting or aromatherapy, or products used for the purpose of dispersing a fragrance otherwise than through products used or marketed as oral care, personal care or household cleaning products.

(b) "Licensed Patents" as used herein shall mean the patents and patent applications identified in Schedule 2 hereto, any patents that issue therefrom, and any divisions, continuations, continuations-in-part, reissues, reexaminations or extensions thereof.

(c) Candle hereby grants to Colgate, its Affiliates (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), and its and their respective successors and assigns, a world-wide, irrevocable, royalty-free exclusive right and license under the Licensed Patents to make, have made, use, have used and sell products within Colgate's Field of Use.

(d) The license granted hereunder shall be exclusive within Colgate's Field of Use. Colgate agrees that it shall not, without receiving the written consent of Candle, assign such license or any interest therein or right thereunder to any person or entity that manufactures or sells products that are used for warming, cooking, heating, lighting, or aromatherapy, or products used for the purpose of dispersing a fragrance otherwise than through products used or marketed as oral care, personal care or household cleaning products. Colgate further agrees promptly to notify Candle of the name and address of any person or entity, other than an Affiliate of Colgate, that acquires such license or any interest therein or right thereunder.

4. Colgate makes no representation or warranty in this document with respect to the patents and patent applications of Schedule 1. All representations and warranties with respect to such patents and patent applications are in the Purchase Agreement.
5. In the event that Candle decides not to prosecute a patent application of Schedule 2 to patent, or to maintain a patent or patent application of Schedule 2, Candle shall promptly so inform Colgate and Colgate shall have the right to prosecute the patent application to patent or to maintain the patent application or patent. In the event that Colgate decides to prosecute a patent application or to maintain a patent application or patent, Candle shall assign all of its right, title and interest therein to Colgate, retaining into itself either a worldwide, irrevocable, royalty-free, nonexclusive right and license or a worldwide, royalty-bearing, exclusive right and license to make, have made, use, have used and sell products, other than within Colgate's Field of Use, as may be covered by one or more of such patents or patent applications and any divisions, extensions, continuations, continuations-in-part, reissues and reexaminations thereof. The royalty for the foregoing exclusive license shall be one half (1/2) of the costs and fees for prosecuting and maintaining the Licensed Patents that are the subject of the exclusive license.
6. Colgate shall notify Candle of any infringement of the Licensed Patents of which it becomes aware within Colgate's Field of Use. For any such infringement within Colgate's Field of Use, Colgate may elect, at its sole discretion and expense, whether to enforce the Licensed Patents, and Candle shall cooperate in such enforcement activities at the sole expense of Colgate; and Colgate shall be entitled to retain all monetary awards recovered through such enforcement activities. If infringement occurs outside Colgate's Field of Use, Candle may elect, at its sole discretion and expense, whether to enforce the Licensed Patents, and Colgate shall cooperate in such enforcement activities at the sole expense of Candle; and Candle shall be entitled to retain all monetary awards recovered through such enforcement activities.
7. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without reference to the choice of law principles thereof.
8. All legal and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Assignment/Retained License shall be paid by the party incurring such costs and expenses.
