TECHNOLOGY ASSIGNMENT:

IgE Technology to LIDAK

For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are acknowledged, Medical Biology Institute as the "GRANTOR," does assign and transfer to LIDAK Pharmaceuticals, as the "GRANTEE," all equitable or legal right, title, and interest throughout the world, including moral rights, in and to any and all: information; ideas, concepts or know-how; trade secrets; scientific, technical and medical knowledge or data; trademarks or tradenames; copyrights; discoveries, improvements, innovations, technologies or inventions; U.S. Patent Application, U.S. Patent and all foreign counterparts (including any patent, utility model and industrial design), Letters Patent and Registrations that may hereafter be granted in the United States and all countries throughout the world or claim of priority from the application as provided by the Paris Convention; other intellectual property rights whatsoever, developed solely or jointly with others, with respect to, related to or underlying the regulation or modulation of Immunoglobulin E ("IgE") production, including, but not limited to U.S. Patent No. 5,260,434.

For further good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which also are acknowledged, Medical Biology Institute as the "GRANTOR" does remise, release, and forever quitclaim to LIDAK Pharmaceuticals as the "GRANTEE", any equitable or legal right, title, and interest throughout the world, including moral rights the GRANTOR has or later may obtain in and to any: information; ideas, concepts or know-how; trade secrets; scientific, technical and medical knowledge or data; trademarks or tradenames; copyrights; discoveries, improvements, innovations, technologies or inventions; U.S. Patent Application, U.S. Patent and all foreign counterparts (including any patent, utility model and industrial design), Letters Patent and Registrations that may hereafter be granted in the United States and all countries throughout the world or claim of priority from the application as provided by the Paris Convention; other intellectual property rights whatsoever with respect to, related to or underlying U.S. Patent Application No. 09/074,722 and International Patent Application 9302696; GRANTOR further assigns any rights GRANTOR has or later may obtain under any employment agreement or invention assignment agreement with respect to any intellectual property that is related to or underlying the regulation or modulation of IgE production, including any such property rights or inventions covered by those patent applications.

The right, title and interest in the foregoing intellectual property is to be held by LIDAK Pharmaceuticals and its successors and assigns as fully and exclusively as it would have been held and enjoyed by the GRANTOR had this assignment not been made, for the full terms of any Letters Patent and Registrations that may be granted on such patent(s), or of any division, renewal, continuation in whole or in part, substitution, conversion, reissue, prolongation or extension of such patent(s).

The GRANTOR shall execute and deliver to LIDAK without further compensation such documents as may be necessary to prepare or prosecute patent applications for such inventions, discoveries or improvements and to assign and transfer to the LIDAK its right, title and interest in and to said inventions, discoveries and improvements and intellectual property rights therefor.
