ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT REVISIONS

Background:

1. Kevin A. Kelly of 744 Amity Road, Galloway, Ohio; Thomas E. Lach and Ralph D. Lach both of 2427 Tremont Road, Columbus, Ohio 43221; and Arthur W. Handshy of 6728 Lakeside, Worthington, Ohio, (collectively referred to below as the "Assignors") are the inventors of the invention disclosed and claimed in United States patent 5,738,637, entitled CHEST COMPRESSION APPARATUS FOR CARDIAC ARREST, issued on April 14, 1998, (the "Patent") from U. S. patent application serial no. 8/573,465 filed on December 15, 1995. The Assignors are also listed as the inventors in the U.S. patent application serial no. 9/059,497 filed on April 13, 1998, (the "Application"). The Application constitutes a continuation of the Patent.

2. Deca-Medics, Inc., ("Deca-Medics") is an Ohio corporation with a place of business at 2427 Tremont Road, Columbus, Ohio 43221. Deca-Medics employed the Assignors during the time that they made the inventions set forth in the Patent and in the Application. The assignors were employed by Deca-Medics specifically for the purpose of making inventions and developments in the field of cardiopulmonary resuscitation ("CPR").

3. By a document entitled "PATENT APPLICATION AND INVENTION ASSIGNMENT" (the "Assignment", a copy of which, along with its recording sheet, is attached as Exhibit A), the Assignors sold, assigned, and transferred to Deca-Medics and "its successors, assigns, and legal representatives the entire right, title and interest (excepting the reversionary interest discussed below)" in all inventions disclosed in the Patent. The assignment extends to the Patent and to the Application. The Assignment was executed by the Assignors on December 12, 1995, and recorded in the United States Patent and Trademark Office (PTO) on December 15, 1995, at Reel 7940, Frame 0589. A copy of the Assignment is attached as Exhibit A. Exhibit B shows the cover sheet submitted to the PTO for recording and provides the information concerning the recording of the assignment by the PTO.

4. The reversionary interest set forth in the Assignment and mentioned in the preceding causes the assigned interests to automatically revert to the Assignors if, inter alia, the successors in interest of the assignee (i.e., Deca-Medics) cease business operations while owning the Patent, the Application, or any patent on an invention disclosed in the Patent.

5. The Assignors and Deca-Medics, however, agree that if Deca-Medics voluntarily and properly transfers Deca-Medics' interests in the Patent, the Application, or any other noted patent, then the Assignors should no longer retain any reversionary interests in the interests assigned. In other words, Deca-Medics should have the ability to voluntary transfer the patent rights enumerated without any accompanying reversionary rights of the Assignors.

6. Additionally, the Assignors desire to make arrangements amongst themselves for the eventuality that the assigned interests do revert to them because of the happening of the contingency stated in the Assignment.

7. Accordingly, Deca-Medics and the Assignors agree to the following revisions of their original Assignment as follows.

Covenants:

1. In consideration of their executing this ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT REVISIONS, Deca-medics has paid to each of the Assignors one dollar ($1.00) and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which each of the Assignors acknowledges.

2. In the event that Deca-Medics voluntarily and employing proper corporate procedures assigns, sells, and transfers the right, title, and interest assigned, sold, and transferred in the Assignment in other than an assignment for the benefit of creditors or in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Assignors at the time of such transfer relinquish their reversionary interest set forth in the Assignment.

3. If the reversionary interest set forth in the Assignment vests in the Assignors and the right, title, and interest sold, assigned and transferred by the Assignment reverts to the Assignors, then the Assignors agree that none will take any action to use, license, sell, assign, or transfer any right, title, or interest in the Patent, the Application, or any and all inventions disclosed in the Patent unless a majority of the Assignors then living agree to do so.
