ASSIGNMENT

WHEREAS, We, David Lawler and Steven Smith ("Assignors"), having made an invention titled "A NOVEL ENZYME-PRODUCING STRAIN OF BACILLUS BACTERIA," which bears Attorney Docket No. 24479-133, and which will be filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office concurrently with this Assignment;

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is acknowledged, we have agreed to assign and transfer and do hereby assign and transfer unto Roebic Laboratories, Inc. ("Assignee"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Connecticut, U.S.A., its successors and assigns, the entire right, title and interest in and to the said invention and Application, and in and to division, continuation or continuation-in-part, of said application, and in any and to any and all Letters Patent and reissues and extensions thereof, of the United States of America and countries foreign thereto (including the right to apply for Letters Patent in foreign countries in the Assignee's own name and to claim any priority rights for such foreign applications to which such applications are entitled under international conventions, treaties, or otherwise), which have been or may be granted on any of the foregoing to be held and enjoyed as fully and exclusively as they would have been by us had this assignment and transfer not been made;

Assignors do further agree to execute and deliver without further consideration any further applications, assignments and documents, and to perform such other acts as Assignors lawfully may, that may be deemed necessary by Assignee, its successors, assigns and nominees, fully to secure Assignee's interest as aforesaid and to obtain or maintain Letters Patent in any and all countries.

And Assignors do hereby authorize and request the Commissioner of Patents to issue any and all Letters patent which may be granted upon any of the said applications, to Assignee, as the assignee of the entire interest therein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Assignors have hereunto signed their names on the day and year set forth below.
