An incorrect assignment document has been presented to the Patent Trademark offices Assignment Division by Carco Development Company. The date of this document used by Carco is May 5, 1996 and the signing parties were Michael Egan, Danise Egan, Glen Hierlmeier for Superior Development Corporation, and Mary Jannett as Notary Public.

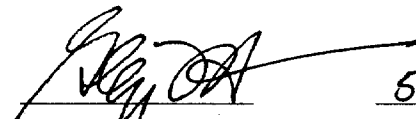

There was never an assignment of Michael A. Egan's patents to Carco Development Company or anyone else. There was document prepared in 1996 that these rights would have been transferred to Carco during a negotiation time period of a particular contract between Rapid Turf Inc. and Superior Development only in the case of Michael Egan's untimely death. The condition was that if he died and the negotiations were still under way then Carco would take his position. This contract was finalized in and around 1997. He is not dead. These documents were no longer valid nor was the assignment completed. They were to be destroyed. Around June of 1999 this document resurfaced and is being used erroneously.

We the signing parties of the document that Carco presented to the Assignment Division hereby notify that this is an incorrect assignment and hereby certify that to the best of our knowledge no assignment was ever completed, and the subject document was never intended for the purpose of assigning the patents, also that these patents (#5,301,466 and #5,651,213) are the sole property of Michael A. Egan.

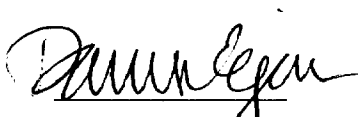

Sincerely,

 Michael A. Egan
