Enclosure

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
JOHN EDWARD MACK

I, JOHN EDWARD MACK of Carter County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, declare and publish this as my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking any and all other wills or codicils thereto that at anytime heretofore might have been made.

I

I direct that all my just debts, if any, including funeral expenses, be paid as soon after my demise as possible.

II

To my beloved wife, KATHRYN J. DUGGER, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, both real and personal, of which I may die seized and possessed or over which I have power of disposition, absolutely, and I appoint her executrix of this my Will and direct that she be exempt from giving any surety or sureties on her official bond as executrix.

III

In the event my wife should predecease me, then I give, devise and bequeath all my property to my mother, MARGARITE MACK of Davie, Florida.

IV

As executor of this my Last Will in the event my wife predeceases me, I hereby appoint MARK S. DUGGER, ATTORNEY, Elizabethton, Tennessee, and request that he be exempt from giving any surety or sureties on his official bond as executrix.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand on this the 10th day of May, 1996.

JOHN EDWARD MACK

STATE OF TENNESSEE
COUNTY OF CARTER

We, the undersigned attesting witnesses, who after first being duly sworn according to law, make oath that the foregoing instrument was signed by JOHN EDWARD MACK, the testator, as and for, and at that time acknowledged, published and declared to be his Last Will and Testament, in the sight and presence of us, who at his request and in his sight and presence, and in the sight and presence of each other have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses on this the 10th day of May, 1996. We further make oath that the testator appeared to be of sound mind and disposing memory and not acting under the fraud, menace or undue influence of any person or persons, and was more than eighteen (18) years of age and that each of the attesting witnesses were more than eighteen (18) years of age.
