This Security Agreement, dated as of this 8th day of June 2000, is made by and between SUPREME CORQ, INC., a Washington corporation (the "Debtor" or "Company" or "Borrower") in favor of those persons set forth on Attachment 1 hereto (the "Secured Parties").

2. The Company has secured a Four Million Dollar ($4,000,000) term loan facility ("2000 BA Loan Facility"; unless the context otherwise requires, the 2000 BA Loan Facility shall include all renewals and refinancings of the same) from the Bank of America, N.A. ("BA"; unless the context otherwise clearly requires, BA shall include all successors and assigns of BA in respect of the 2000 BA Loan Facility) pursuant to a loan agreement dated December 30, 1999 between the Company and BA. As security for the prompt and complete payment and performance when due of all of the Obligations, including without limitation, the BA Reimbursement Obligation, the Debtor hereby sells, assigns, conveys, mortgages, pledges, hypothecates and transfers to the Secured Parties, and grants to the Secured Parties a security interest in, all of the Debtor's right, title and interest in, to and under all of the Collateral.

4. Further Warranties and Covenants of Debtor. Except as provided in the Disclosure Schedules attached hereto as Schedule A (the parties agree that Schedule A may be omitted from this Agreement when filed in public offices without affecting the validity or effectiveness of this Agreement or such act of filing). Debtor hereby warrants and covenants to the Secured Parties:

(a) The Debtor is a corporation, duly organized and existing under the laws of the state of Washington.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Security Agreement is within the Debtor's corporate powers, has been duly authorized, is not in contravention of law or the terms of the Debtor's charter, bylaws or other incorporation papers, or of any indenture, agreement or undertaking to which the Debtor is a party or by which it is bound, including without limitation licenses for intellectual property and agreements with creditors of Debtor.

(c) Except for the security interest hereby granted to the Secured Parties and the security interest granted to BACF the subject of the Intercreditor Agreement, Debtor is the owner of the Collateral free from any adverse lien, security interest or encumbrance, and Debtor will defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein.

(d) Except for those in favor of the BACF, no financing statement, assignment for security purposes, or any other such instrument covering any of the Collateral is on file in any public office. Debtor's true and only name is "Supreme Corq, Inc." The location of Debtor's chief executive office and all other places of business are set forth on Schedule A attached hereto. Except as set forth on Schedule A, Debtor has not granted any licenses in or to the Intellectual Property Collateral. The Debtor shall immediately notify the Secured Parties in writing of any change in name, address, identity or corporate structure from that shown in this Security Agreement and shall also upon demand furnish to the Secured Parties such further information and shall execute and deliver to each Secured Party such financing statements and other documents in form satisfactory to such Secured Party and Debtor and shall do all such acts and things as the Secured Parties may at any time or from time to time reasonably request or as may be necessary or appropriate to establish and maintain a perfected security interest in the Collateral as security for the Obligations, subject to no adverse liens or encumbrances (the security interests to BACF the subject of the Intercreditor Agreement hereby being excepted). The Secured Parties may at any time, and without further authorization from Debtor, file a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of any financing statement or of this Security Agreement or any assignment for security purposes or other such instruments for use as a financing statement, assignment for security purposes, or other such instrument under this Security Agreement. In connection therewith, the Secured Parties shall be entitled to attach to this Security Agreement one or more attachments of the type referenced in item (e) of the definition of "Intellectual Property Collateral." Debtor shall reimburse the Secured Parties for all costs and fees for the perfection and the continuation of the security interest in the Collateral.

(e) All Collateral is located only at a location set forth in Schedule A and Debtor agrees not to move Collateral from those locations without fifteen (15) days prior written notice to the Secured Parties, so long as such notice is sufficient to allow steps to be taken to perfect the security interests in any new jurisdiction. The identifiers (serial numbers) for the molds included in the Collateral is set forth at Schedule A. Debtor, upon request of Secured Party, shall deliver from time to time in form satisfactory to Secured Party, a schedule of real properties and a schedule of additional locations of Collateral hereafter acquired, including without limitation the following: (a) all real property owned or being purchased or leased or rented by Debtor; (b) all storage facilities owned, rented, leased, or being used by Debtor or any consignee of Debtor; and (c) all other properties where Collateral is or may be located. Secured Party may examine and inspect the Collateral at any time wherever located upon reasonable notice to Debtor and during Debtor's ordinary business hours. Debtor shall at all times maintain accurate records of Collateral and Secured Party may examine the records and may consult with Debtor and its accountants to determine Debtor's compliance with this Security Agreement.

(f) The Debtor shall keep the Collateral at all times insured against risks of loss or damage by fire, theft, and such other casualties as the Secured Parties may reasonably require, all in such amounts, under such forms of policies, upon such terms, for such periods and written by such companies or underwriters as is commercially reasonable, losses in all cases to be payable to the Secured Parties and the Debtor and BACF as their interests may appear. All policies of insurance shall provide for at least thirty days' prior written notice of cancellation to the Secured Parties. The Debtor shall furnish the Secured Parties with certificates of such insurance or other evidence satisfactory to the Secured Parties as to compliance with the provisions of this paragraph. After a Default, as hereinafter defined, the Secured Parties may act as attorney for the Debtor in making, adjusting and settling claims under and canceling such insurance and endorsing the Debtor's name on any drafts drawn by insurers of the Collateral.

(g) (V) Except for (i) inventory sold, licensed or leased in the ordinary course of Debtor's business, (ii) Intellectual Property Collateral licensed in the ordinary course of Debtor's business (as hereafter defined and specified), (iii) accounts collected in the ordinary course of Debtor's business, and (iv) Licenses of Intellectual Property Collateral previously granted to Neocork or arising out of any future settlement, final judgment or final order in Debtor's litigation with Nomaco as disclosed on Schedule A, Debtor shall not sell, license or lease, offer to sell, license or lease, or otherwise transfer or dispose of the Collateral. While Debtor is not in default under this Agreement, Debtor may use the Collateral and may sell, license or lease inventory on a non-exclusive basis, but only in the ordinary course and on the ordinary, arms-length terms and conditions of Debtor's business, which terms and conditions shall conform to customary trade and industry practices.

(W) Intellectual Property Collateral licensed in the ordinary course of debtor's business shall be with no up-front payments, or prepaid royalties, fees, or other consideration without the written consent of the Secured Parties Investor Representative, which written consent shall not unreasonably be withheld.

(X) Debtor may enter into exclusive licensing agreements of Intellectual Property Collateral in the ordinary course of Debtor's business without Secured Party's written consent only if such licenses are granted for territories outside the U.S.A., are limited to a defined geographic territory, have a specific license term no greater than 5 years, are with parties already actively involved in the wine business (or the business of supplying materials or equipment for the same) who are not affiliated with Debtor (except as specified below), and contain performance requirements, extending over the term of the license, as a condition for retained exclusivity. Debtor may also enter in exclusive licenses of the Intellectual Property Collateral for territories outside of the USA with joint ventures of which Debtor is a participant or partner as long as such joint ventures are formed with parties already actively involved in the wine business (or the business of supplying materials or equipment for the same), the term is no greater than five (5) years, the license and the joint venture is for a limited geographic territory, and Debtor grants to Secured Parties a first priority perfected security interest in Debtor's rights and interests in such joint venture pursuant to instruments and arrangements reasonably acceptable to the Investor Representative. In all other circumstances, the exclusive licensing of Collateral shall be subject to the written consent of the Investor Representative, which written consent shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.

(Y) Promptly following the execution of any license of the Intellectual Property Collateral, regardless of whether in the Debtor's ordinary course of business or not, Debtor shall provide a copy of such license agreement to Investor Representative.

(Z) A sale, license or lease in the ordinary course of Debtor's business does not include a transfer in partial or total satisfaction of a debt or any bulk sale.

Nothing in this Section 4(g) is intended to require Debtor to obtain Secured Party's prior consent in the event there is a future settlement with Nomaco, nor prohibit a Neocork arrangement pursuant to which Debtor may receive prepaid license fees or settlement payments in the amount previously agreed to by the parties or less.

(h) The Debtor will keep the Collateral free from any adverse lien, security interest or encumbrance (the security interests to BACF the subject of the Intercreditor Agreement hereby being excepted) and in good order and repair, shall not waste or destroy the Collateral or any part thereof, and shall not use the Collateral in violation of any statute, ordinance or policy of insurance thereon. The foregoing prohibition includes security interests even if junior in right to the security interest granted by this Security Agreement (the security interests to BACF the subject of the Intercreditor Agreement hereby being excepted). Unless waived by the Secured Parties, all proceeds from any disposition of the Collateral not in the ordinary course of business (for whatever reason) shall be held in trust for the Secured Parties, and shall not be commingled with any other funds; provided, however, that this requirement shall not constitute consent by the Secured Parties to any sale or other disposition. Debtor shall not agree to any increase in the principal amount of the 1999 BACF Facility and shall not agree to any material amendment to or modification or waiver of the 1999 BACF Facility or the 2000 BA Facility or the related documents.

(i) The Debtor will pay promptly when due all taxes and assessments upon the Collateral or for its use or operation or upon this Security Agreement.

(j) The Debtor shall reimburse the Secured Parties for all expenses (including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by the Secured Parties, or any of them, in seeking to collect or enforce or protect any rights in any Collateral or any other right under this Security Agreement. Such fees include, without limitation, any fees incurred in connection with any bankruptcy proceeding or insolvency proceeding involving Debtor. All such expenses shall be secured by this Security Agreement and shall be deemed to constitute "Obligations" hereunder.

(k) With specific (not exclusive) reference to the Intellectual Property Collateral, in addition to all of the foregoing, Debtor covenants and agrees as follows:

(1) Debtor shall keep in effect, pay all royalties and fees, including but not limited to maintenance fees, file all affidavits of use, make all renewals or extensions, register for all new or enhanced rights now or hereafter arising under applicable laws, and take all other steps of every nature whatsoever necessary or advisable in the ordinary course of business and from time to time, to prevent the expiration or termination of, to create and to keep in full force and effect, all Intellectual Property Collateral and all licenses and rights relating thereto. In connection with the foregoing program and otherwise, Debtor shall take appropriate steps to protect the Intellectual Property Collateral from infringement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower is free to make appropriate decisions regarding the renewal or extension of patents for jurisdictions outside of the United States, so long as any decisions not to renew or extend will not result in a material adverse effect upon the value of the Intellectual Property Collateral.

(2) Debtor shall immediately notify the Secured Parties of all material events involving the expiration, termination, loss of rights or any other impairment of Intellectual Property Collateral.

(3) Schedule A lists all applied for and issued patents of Debtor, and all applied for and registered trademarks, and other trademarks, of Debtor. Debtor acknowledges all of such items listed on Schedule A are included within the scope of the Intellectual Property Collateral. In accordance with the provisions of item (c) of the definition of "Intellectual Property Collateral," Schedule A's listing of applied for and issued patents and applied for and registered trademarks may be modified in connection with filings of this Security Agreement with one or more patent offices or the equivalent, by agreement between the Investor Representative and Debtor.

(4) Debtor agrees to execute from time to time a mortgage on or assignment for security purposes of the Intellectual Property Collateral, including but not limited to copyrights, trademarks, patents, and mask works, in such form(s) as may be required or advisable (in Secured Parties' discretion) from time to time under applicable laws, and further agrees to execute upon demand of the Secured Parties such federal, state or foreign intellectual property recordings, filings or assignments (for security) or the like, and to take whatever other actions are reasonably requested by the Secured Parties to perfect and continue the Secured Parties' interest in the Intellectual Property Collateral, to note the Secured Parties' interest upon any and all Intellectual Property Collateral as requested by the Secured Parties, and to deliver to the Secured Parties for possession by the Secured Parties all instruments, chattel paper, securities, documents and other Intellectual Property Collateral request by the Secured Parties.

(5) With respect to Intellectual Property Collateral being or to be developed by Debtor which is or becomes eligible for registration under copyright, patent, trademark, mask work or other intellectual property registration schemes, upon reasonable request of Secured Parties, Debtor agrees to register (1) each module or element of the work as soon as such module or element becomes eligible for registration, and (2) each completed work immediately upon completion. Debtor also agrees to execute a mortgage or assignment for security purposes in substantially the form as provided in connection with execution of this Security Agreement, or such other form as may be reasonably requested by Secured Parties with respect to each such module, element and completed work and with respect to all future applications for registrations Debtor may in the future make with respect to the Intellectual Property Collateral. Debtor agrees to notify Secured Parties of future applications for registration Debtor may make in respect of the Intellectual Property Collateral, which notification shall be made reasonably promptly after the applications are made.

(6) Except with respect to claims disclosed on Schedule A, Debtor represents and warrants to Secured Party that there are no claims of any nature affecting or that could affect the authority or rights of Debtor in or to the Intellectual Property Collateral or the right of Debtor to make, use, reproduce, display or perform (publicly or otherwise), modify or prepare derivative works, record, transmit, sell, offer to sell or distribute, license, lease, assign or encumber, import, or otherwise dispose of the inventory currently produced by the Debtor, as sold by Debtor in the locations currently sold in by Debtor, or Intellectual Property Collateral or to quietly enjoy the Intellectual Property Collateral and inventory, or the operation of Debtor's business as currently operated, including but not limited to claims of infringement of any of the Intellectual Property Collateral or claims regarding copyright or patent abuse. Debtor shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Collateral and Secured Parties from and against any such claims whether now or hereafter existing. This subsection shall survive termination of this Security Agreement and all other Obligations.

(l) Except with respect to Supreme Corq Chile Limitada ("SCCL") and Emerald Packaging International Inc. ("EPI"), there are no subsidiaries, related entities or other equity interests in other companies or entities. Furthermore, neither SCCL nor EPI have, nor will have, any intellectual property or other material assets.

5. Additional Rights of Secured Parties. At their option, the Secured Parties may discharge taxes, liens or security interests or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed on the Collateral, may place and pay for insurance on the Collateral upon failure by the Debtor, after having been requested so to do, to provide insurance satisfactory to the Secured Parties and may pay for the maintenance, repair, and preservation of the Collateral. Such payments and expenses (including without limitation, attorney's fees and expenses) paid by the Secured Parties with respect to the Collateral shall be deemed advanced to the Debtor by the Secured Parties, shall bear interest at the lower of the highest rate permitted under Washington law or the prevailing prime rate in Washington, as it may vary from time to time, plus 3% per annum, and shall be secured by this Security Agreement. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtor agrees to reimburse the Secured Parties on demand for any payment made, or any expense incurred by the Secured Parties pursuant to the foregoing authorization. The foregoing obligations of Debtor shall be deemed "Obligations" for purposes of this Security Agreement.

6. Events of Default. The Debtor shall be in default under this Security Agreement upon the occurrence of any of the following events or conditions, which shall be referred to herein as a "Default": (a) default in the payment or performance of any of the BA Reimbursement Obligation or of any covenants or liabilities contained or referred to herein or in any of the other Obligations; (b) any warranty, representation or statement made or furnished to the Secured Parties by or on behalf of the Debtor proving to have been false in any material respect when made or furnished; (c) Debtor shall breach any of the covenants or obligations of Debtor in respect of the 1999 BACF Facility or the 2000 BA Facility or under any other agreement, contract, mortgage, instrument or commitment of or binding on Debtor or an "event of default" occurs under any of the foregoing; (d) the Company or BACF disavows, disaffirms or otherwise seeks to render ineffective the Intercreditor Agreement or the Intercreditor Agreement is determined in any manner to be ineffective or insufficient to carry out its intended purpose; (e) the occurrence of any event described at Section 8.1 of the Stock Purchase Agreement which requires a release of all guarantees provided by the Secured Parties pursuant to that Section 8.1; or (f) dissolution, termination of existence, insolvency, business failure, appointment of a receiver of any part of the property, assignment for the benefit of creditors, or filing a petition for relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code by the Debtor.

7. Remedies. Upon Default and at any time thereafter (such Default not having previously been cured), the Secured Parties at their option (i) may declare all of the BA Reimbursement Obligation secured hereby immediately due and payable, in which event, among other things, the Secured Parties may require the Debtor to pay immediately, irrevocably, and in full, all of the 2000 BA Loan Facility, and all obligations of Debtor to BA in respect thereof, whether for principal, interest, or prepayment or other costs (Debtor's obligations to make such payment shall for all relevant purposes be treated as an "Obligation" hereunder) and (ii) shall have the remedies of a secured party under the Code, including without limitation the right to take immediate and exclusive possession of the Collateral, or any part thereof, and for that purpose may, so far as the Debtor can give authority therefor, with judicial process, enter upon any premises on which the Collateral or any part thereof may be situated and remove the same therefrom (provided that if the Collateral is affixed to real estate, such removal shall be subject to the conditions stated in the Code); and the Secured Parties shall be entitled to hold, maintain, preserve and prepare the Collateral for sale, until disposed of, or may propose to retain the Collateral subject to the Debtor's right of redemption in satisfaction of the Debtor's obligations as provided in the Code, or the Secured Parties without removal may render the Collateral unusable and dispose of the Collateral on the Debtor's premises. The Secured Parties may require the Debtor to assemble the Collateral and make it available to the Secured Parties for possession at a place to be designated by the Secured Parties which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Unless the Collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, the Secured Parties will give the Debtor at least 5 days' notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition thereof is to be made. The requirements of reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed, postage prepaid, to the address of the Debtor shown at the beginning of this Security Agreement at least five days before the time of the sale or disposition. The Secured Parties may buy at any public sale and if the Collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations, they may buy at private sale. The net proceeds realized upon any such disposition, after deduction for the expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale or lease, selling, leasing and the like and the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the Secured Parties, shall be applied in satisfaction of the BA Reimbursement Obligation and the other Obligations secured hereby. The Secured Parties will be obligated to account to the Debtor for any surplus realized on such disposition and the Debtor shall remain liable for any deficiency.

With respect to intangible Collateral with respect to which there is no tangible item of which to obtain possession, Debtor expressly agrees that Secured Party shall, upon Secured Parties giving notice of their intent to take possession of such collateral, automatically be deemed to have received possession upon any exercise by Secured Party of its rights under this Section 7, without however releasing Debtor on its liability for any deficiency following realization on such collateral.

Debtor further agrees that title to the Intellectual Property Collateral shall, upon Secured Parties giving notice of their intention to take possession of such collateral, automatically pass to Secured Party upon any exercise of its rights under this Section 7, including but not limited to title to all patents, trademarks, tradenames and trade styles, without however releasing Debtor of its liability for any deficiency following realization of such collateral.

8. Remedies Cumulative. The remedies of the Secured Parties hereunder are cumulative and the exercise of any one or more of the remedies provided for herein or under the Code shall not be construed as a waiver of any of the other remedies of the Secured Parties so long as any part of the America Guarantee Obligation remain unsatisfied.

Upon Default, if the sale or other disposition of the Collateral fails to satisfy the BA Reimbursement Obligation and other Obligations secured by this Agreement and the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling and the like, including reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred by the Secured Parties in connection with this Security Agreement or the Obligations it secures (Debtor is obligated to reimburse Secured Parties for all such expenses, which obligation is an "Obligation" under this Agreement), the Debtor shall be liable for any deficiency.

11. Agreement Assignable. All rights of the Secured Parties in, to and under this Security Agreement and in and to the Collateral shall pass to and may be exercised by any permitted assignee pursuant to Section 8.2 of the Stock Purchase Agreement. The Debtor agrees that if the Secured Parties give notice to the Debtor of an assignment of said rights, upon such notice the liability of the Debtor to the assignee shall be immediate and absolute.

For purposes of permitting the Investor Representative to take any of the actions that the above allows him to take, the Secured Parties hereby designate the Investor Representative as their attorney-in-fact, which appointment shall be irrevocable and coupled with an interest. The provisions of Section 7.7 of the Stock Purchase Agreement entitled "Regarding Investor Representative," are incorporated herein by reference; for purposes of such incorporation, the phrase "to provide the approvals contemplated by this Section 7" in the first sentence of such section shall be deemed changed to "to provide the consents and to take the actions contemplated by this Security Agreement." 4(k(6)) Claims Against Intellectual Property

Anthony Smith Australia Pty Ltd (ASA) instituted proceedings against Supreme Corq on 20 October 1999, seeking a declaration from the Australian Federal Court that Supreme Corq's Australian patent number 691497 is invalid and each and all of the claims of the complete specification of that patent be revoked.

On 29 November 1999, Supreme Corq cross claimed against ASA for infringement of its patent in relation to ASA's manufacture, sale and distribution within Australia of its INTEGRA brand of synthetic closures.
