The Assignor agrees that until the Secured Obligations shall have been satisfied in full and the First Security Agreement shall have been terminated, the Assignor will not, without the Assignee's prior written consent, enter into any agreement (for example, a license agreement) which is inconsistent with the Assignor's obligations under this Assignment and the Assignor further agrees that it will not take any action, or permit any action to be taken by others subject to its control, including licensees, or fail to take any action, which would affect the validity or enforcement of the rights transferred to the Assignee under this Assignment.

Section 4. New Patents, Trademarks, and Licenses. The Assignor represents and warrants that the Patents, Trademarks and Licenses listed on Schedules A, B and C, respectively, constitute all of the Intellectual Property now owned by the Assignor. If, before the Secured Obligations shall have been satisfied in full, the Assignor shall (i) obtain rights to any new patentable inventions, trademarks, trademark registrations, trade names, logos or licenses, or (ii) become entitled to the benefit of any patent or trademark application, trademark, trademark registration, or license renewal, or patent for any reissue, division, continuation, renewal, extension, or continuation-in-part of any Patent or any improvement on any Patent, the provisions of Section 2 above shall automatically apply thereto and the Assignor shall give to the Assignee prompt written notice thereof. The Assignor hereby authorizes the Assignee to modify this Assignment by amending Schedule A, B and/or C, as applicable, to include any future patents, patent applications, trademarks, trademark registrations, logos, trade names and licenses which are Intellectual Property, as applicable, under Section 2 above or under this Section 4.

Section 5. Royalties; Terms. The Assignor hereby agrees that the use by the Assignee of all Patents, Trademarks and Licenses as described above shall be worldwide and without any liability for royalties or other related charges from the Assignee to the Assignor. The term of the assignments granted herein shall extend until the earlier of (i) the expiration of each of the respective Patents, Trademarks and Licenses assigned hereunder, or (ii) the Secured Obligations have been paid in full.

Section 6. The Assignee's Right to Inspect. The Assignee shall have the right, from time to time during normal business hours or such other time as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto, to inspect the Assignor's premises and to examine the Assignor's books, records and operations, including, without limitation, the Assignor's quality control processes. The Assignor agrees (i) not to sell or assign its interest in, or grant any license under, the Patents, Trademarks or Licenses, without the prior written consent of the Assignee; (ii) to maintain the quality of any and all products in connection with which the Trademarks are used, consistent with the quality of said products as of the date hereof; and (iii) to provide the Assignee, at least monthly, with a certificate of an officer of the Assignor certifying the Assignor's compliance with the foregoing.

Section 7. Reassignment to the Assignor. This Assignment is made for collateral purposes only. Upon payment in full of the Secured Obligations and termination of the First Security Agreement, the Assignee shall execute and deliver to the Assignor all deeds, assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or proper to re-vest in the Assignor full title to the Patents, Trademarks, and Licenses, subject to any disposition thereof which may have been made by the Assignee pursuant hereto or pursuant to the First Security Agreement.

Section 8. Duties of the Assignor. The Assignor shall have the duty (i) to pursue diligently any patent application of the Patents and any trademark application of the Trademarks pending as of the date hereof or thereafter until the Secured Obligations shall have been paid in full, (ii) to make application on unpatented but patentable inventions and on trademarks, as may be reasonably necessary to carry on the Assignor's business, and (iii) to preserve and maintain all rights in patent applications and patents of the Patents and in trademark applications, trademarks, and trademark registrations of the Trademarks, as may be reasonably necessary to carry on the Assignor's business.

Section 9. The Assignee's Right to Sue. The Assignee shall have the right, but shall in no way be obligated, to bring suit in its own name to enforce the Intellectual Property, and, if the Assignee shall commence any such suit, the Assignor shall, at the request of the Assignee, do any and all lawful acts and execute any and all proper documents required by the Assignee in aid of such enforcement and the Assignor shall promptly, upon demand, reimburse and indemnify the Assignee for all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the Assignee in the exercise of its rights under this Section 9; provided, however that the Assignee shall be entitled to reimbursement only if the Assignee has reasonably requested and the Assignor has failed or neglected to bring any such suit in a timely manner.

Section 10. Waivers. No course of dealing between the Assignor and the Assignee, nor any failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Assignee, any right, power or privilege hereunder or under the Revolving Credit Agreement or First Security Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

Section 11. Severability. The provisions of this Assignment are severable, and if any clause or provision shall be held invalid and unenforceable in whole or in part in any jurisdiction, then such invalidity or unenforceability shall affect only such clause or provision, or part thereof, in such jurisdiction, and shall not in any manner affect such clause or provision in any other jurisdiction, or any other clause or provision of this Assignment in any jurisdiction.

Section 12. Modification. This Assignment cannot be altered, amended or modified in any way, except as specifically provided in Section 4 hereof or by a writing signed by the parties hereto.

Section 13. Cumulative Remedies; Power of Attorney; Effect on First Security Agreement. All of the Assignee's rights and remedies with respect to the Intellectual Property, whether established hereby or by the First Security Agreement, or by any other agreements or by law shall be cumulative and may be exercised singularly or concurrently. In the event of an Event of Default, the Assignor hereby authorizes the Assignee to make, constitute and appoint any officer or agent of the Assignee as the Assignee may select, in its sole discretion, as the Assignor's true and lawful attorney-in-fact, with power to (i) endorse the Assignor's name on all applications, documents, papers and instruments necessary or desirable to the Assignee in the use of the Intellectual Property or (ii) take any other actions with respect to the Intellectual Property as the Assignee deems in the best interest of the Assignee, or (iii) grant or issue any exclusive or non-exclusive license under any of the Patents or Trademarks to anyone, or (iv) assign, pledge, convey or otherwise transfer title in or dispose of the Intellectual Property to anyone. The Assignee hereby ratifies all that such attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. This power of attorney shall be irrevocable until the Secured Obligations shall have been paid in full. The Assignor acknowledges and agrees that this Assignment is not intended to limit or restrict in any way the rights and remedies of the Assignee under the Revolving Credit Agreement or the First Security Agreement but rather is intended to facilitate the exercise of such rights and remedies. The Assignee shall have, in addition to all other rights and remedies given it by the

WHEREAS, the capitalized words and terms used herein which are defined in the Subordinated Term Loan Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in the Subordinated Term Loan Agreement, unless the context hereof otherwise clearly requires;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the Secured Obligations, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Assignor covenants and agrees as follows:

Section 1. Incorporation of Subordinated Term Loan Agreement and Second Security Agreement. The Subordinated Term Loan Agreement and Second Security Agreement and the terms and provisions thereof are hereby incorporated herein in their entirety by this reference thereto.

Section 2. Collateral Assignment of Intellectual Property. To secure the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations, the Assignor hereby grants, bargains, assigns, mortgages, pledges, sells, creates a security interest in, transfers, and conveys to the Assignee, as and by way of a second mortgage and security interest having priority over all security interests other than those security interests securing the Senior Secured Obligations, with power of sale, to the extent permitted by law, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, which results in the acceleration of the amounts due and payable under the Subordinated Term Loan Agreement, all of the Assignor's right, title and interest in and to all of its now owned or existing and filed and hereafter acquired or arising and filed:

(i) patents and patent applications, including, without limitation, the inventions and improvements described and claimed therein, and those patents listed on Schedule A, attached hereto and made a part hereof, and (a) the reissues, divisions, continuations, renewals, extensions and continuations-in-part thereof, (b) all income, royalties, damages and payments now and hereafter due and/or payable under and with respect thereto, including, without limitation, damages and payments for past or future infringements thereof, (c) the right to sue for past, present and future infringements thereof, and (d) all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world (all of the foregoing patents and applications, together with the items described in clauses (a)-(d), are sometimes hereinafter individually and/or collectively referred to as the "Patents");

(ii) trademarks, trademark registrations, trade-names, service marks and service mark applications, logos and copyrights, including, without limitation, the trademarks listed on Schedule B, attached hereto and made a part hereof, and (a) renewals thereof, (b) all income, royalties, damages and payments now and hereafter due and/or payable with respect thereto, including, without limitation, damages and payments for past or future infringements thereof, (c) the right to sue for past, present and future infringements thereof, and (d) all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world (all of the foregoing trademarks, trademark registrations, trade names, service marks and service mark applications, logos and copyrights, together with the items described in clauses (a)-(d), are sometimes hereinafter individually and/or collectively referred to as the "Trademarks");

(iii) license agreements with any other party, whether the Assignor is a licensor or licensee under any such license agreement, including, without limitation, the licenses listed on Schedule C attached hereto and made a part hereof (provided, however that any such licenses requiring the consent of a third party shall not be a part of this Assignment until such consent is obtained; and, further, provided, that the Assignor shall diligently and in good faith promptly secure or attempt to secure all consents necessary to assure the security interest referred to herein), and the right to prepare for sale, sell and advertise for sale, all Inventory now or hereafter owned by the Assignor and now or hereafter covered by such licenses (all of the foregoing is hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Licenses"); and

(iv) the goodwill of the Assignor's business connected with and symbolized by the Trademarks.

Section 3. Subordination of Assignment. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the parties intend and agree that the assignment of Intellectual Property granted by this Assignment is and shall at all times be junior and subordinate in priority in all respects to the assignment of security interests in the Intellectual Property made and granted by the First Assignment of Intellectual Property. Such subordinate and junior status shall exist irrespective of the order of execution and delivery of this Assignment or the attachment and perfection of the security interest granted hereby on the one hand, and the execution and delivery of the First Assignment of Intellectual Property and the attachment and perfection of the security interests thereunder on the other hand. The provisions of this Section 3 are irrevocable and may be modified, waived or revoked only with the written consent of the Assignee, including successors and assigns thereof, under the First Assignment of Intellectual Property.

The Assignee, including all successors and assigns thereof and all Persons claiming by or through the Assignee (whether by subrogation or otherwise, including without limitation Fuqua Industries, Inc. and its successors as the guarantor ("Guarantor") of the Subordinated Term Note under the Guaranty Agreement of even date herewith by and between the Assignee and the Guarantor), and all Persons claiming by or through the Assignor, may not without written waiver or consent as provided in the last sentence of the preceding paragraph exercise any of its rights and remedies with respect to the Intellectual Property unless and until all of the Senior Secured Obligations shall have been paid and performed in full. The Assignee may exercise any and all of its rights and remedies with respect to the Intellectual Property under the First Assignment of Intellectual Property in its absolute discretion from time to time with no obligation to preserve the Intellectual Property for the benefit of the Assignor, Guarantor or any other party claiming rights under the First Assignment of Intellectual Property, and it may apply the proceeds or other property realized upon the sale, collection, use or disposition of the Intellectual Property pursuant to the First Assignment of Intellectual Property in any manner permitted thereunder as it may determine in its sole discretion.

If any of the subsequent provisions of this Assignment conflict or are inconsistent with the provisions, purposes and intent of this Section 3, the provisions of this Section 3 shall control and such other provisions shall be subject to this Section 3. The subordination provisions set forth in this Section 3 are expressly conditioned on the nonavoidability of the security interests granted by or conferred pursuant to the First Assignment of Intellectual Property, and, if such security interests are lawfully avoided in any bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership proceedings, then such subordination provisions hereunder shall not be effective as against the Assignee hereunder and any Person claiming by or through the Assignee.

Section 4. Restrictions on Future Agreements. The Assignor agrees that until the Secured Obligations shall have been satisfied in full and the Second Security Agreement shall have been terminated, the Assignor will not, without the Assignee's prior written consent, enter into any agreement (for example, a license agreement) which is inconsistent with the Assignor's obligations under this Assignment and the Assignor further agrees that it will not take any action, or permit any action to be taken by others subject to its control, including licensees, or fail to take any action, which would affect the validity or enforcement of the rights transferred to the Assignee under this Assignment.

Section 5. New Patents, Trademarks, and Licenses. The Assignor represents and warrants that the Patents, Trademarks and Licenses listed on Schedules A, B and C, respectively, constitute all of the Intellectual Property now owned by the Assignor. If, before the Secured Obligations shall have been satisfied in full, the Assignor shall (i) obtain rights to any new patentable inventions, trademarks, trademark registrations, trade names, logos or licenses, or (ii) become entitled to the benefit of any patent or trademark application, trademark, trademark registration, or license renewal, or patent for any reissue, division, continuation, renewal, extension, or continuation-in-part of any Patent or any improvement on any Patent, the provisions of Section 2 above shall automatically apply thereto and the Assignor shall give to the Assignee prompt written notice thereof. The Assignor hereby authorizes the Assignee to modify this Assignment by amending Schedule A, B and/or C, as applicable, to include any future patents, patent applications, trademarks, trademark registrations, logos, trade names and licenses which are Intellectual Property, as applicable, under Section 2 above or under this Section 5.

Section 6. Royalties; Terms. The Assignor hereby agrees that the use by the Assignee of all Patents, Trademarks and Licenses as described above shall be worldwide and without any liability for royalties or other related charges from the Assignee to the Assignor. The term of the assignments granted herein shall extend until the earlier of (i) the expiration of each of the respective Patents, Trademarks and Licenses assigned hereunder, or (ii) the Secured Obligations have been paid in full.

Section 7. The Assignee's Right to Inspect. The Assignee shall have the right, from time to time during normal business hours or such other time as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto, to inspect the Assignor's premises and to examine the Assignor's books, records and operations, including, without limitation, the Assignor's quality control processes. The Assignor agrees (i) not to sell or assign its interest in, or grant any license under, the Patents, Trademarks or Licenses, without the prior written consent of the Assignee; (ii) to maintain the quality of any and all products in connection with which the Trademarks are used, consistent with the quality of said products as of the date hereof; and (iii) to provide the Assignee, at least monthly, with a certificate of an officer of the Assignor certifying the Assignor's compliance with the foregoing.

Section 8. Reassignment to the Assignor. This Assignment is made for collateral purposes only. Upon payment in full of the Secured Obligations and termination of the Second Security Agreement, the Assignee shall execute and deliver to the Assignor all deeds, assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or proper to re-vest in the Assignor full title to the Patents, Trademarks, and Licenses, subject to any disposition thereof which may have been made by the Assignee pursuant hereto or pursuant to the Second Security Agreement.

Section 9. Duties of the Assignor. The Assignor shall have the duty (i) to pursue diligently any patent application of the Patents and any trademark application of the Trademarks pending as of the date hereof or thereafter until the Secured Obligations shall have been paid in full, (ii) to make application on unpatented but patentable inventions and on trademarks, as may be reasonably necessary to carry on the Assignor's business, and (iii) to preserve and maintain all rights in patent applications and patents of the Patents and in trademark applications, trademarks, and trademark registrations of the Trademarks, as may be reasonably necessary to carry on the Assignor's business.

Section 10. The Assignee's Right to Sue. The Assignee shall have the right, but shall in no way be obligated, to bring suit in its own name to enforce the Intellectual Property, and, if the Assignee shall commence any such suit, the Assignor shall, at the request of the Assignee, do any and all lawful acts and execute any and all proper documents required by the Assignee in aid of such enforcement and the Assignor shall promptly, upon demand, reimburse and indemnify the Assignee for all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the Assignee in the exercise of its rights under this Section 10; provided, however that the Assignee shall be entitled to reimbursement only if the Assignee has reasonably requested and the Assignor has failed or neglected to bring any such suit in a timely manner.

Section 11. Waivers. No course of dealing between the Assignor and the Assignee, nor any failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Assignee, any right, power or privilege hereunder or under the Subordinated Term Loan Agreement or Second Security Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

Section 12. Severability. The provisions of this Assignment are severable, and if any clause or provision shall be held invalid and unenforceable in whole or in part in any jurisdiction, then such invalidity or unenforceability shall affect only such clause or provision, or part thereof, in such jurisdiction, and shall not in any manner affect such clause or provision in any other jurisdiction, or any other clause or provision of this Assignment in any jurisdiction.

Section 13. Modification. This Assignment cannot be altered, amended or modified in any way, except as specifically provided in Section 5 hereof or by a writing signed by the parties hereto.

Section 14. Cumulative Remedies; Power of Attorney; Effect on Second Security Agreement. All of the Assignee's rights and remedies with respect to the Intellectual Property, whether established hereby or by the Second Security Agreement, or by any other agreements or by law shall be cumulative and may be exercised singularly or concurrently. In the event of an Event of Default, the Assignor hereby authorizes the Assignee to make, constitute and appoint any officer or agent of the Assignee as the Assignee may select, in its sole discretion, as the Assignor's true and lawful attorney-in-fact, with power to (i) endorse the Assignor's name on all applications, documents, papers and instruments necessary or desirable to the Assignee in the use of the Intellectual Property or (ii) take any other actions with respect to the Intellectual Property as the Assignee deems in the best interest of the Assignee, or (iii) grant or issue any exclusive or non-exclusive license under any of the Patents or Trademarks to anyone, or (iv) assign, pledge, convey or otherwise transfer title in or dispose of the Intellectual Property to anyone. The Assignee hereby ratifies all that such attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. This power of attorney shall be irrevocable until the Secured Obligations shall have been paid in full. The Assignor acknowledges and agrees that this Assignment is not intended to limit or restrict in any way the rights and remedies of the Assignee under the Subordinated Term Loan Agreement or the Second Security Agreement but rather is intended to facilitate the exercise of such rights and remedies. The Assignee shall have, in addition to all other rights and remedies given it by the terms of this Assignment, all rights and remedies allowed by law and the rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted in any jurisdiction in which the Intellectual Property may be located.

Section 15. Binding Effect; Benefits. This Assignment shall be binding upon the Assignor and its respective successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of the Assignee, its nominees and assigns.
