DISCHARGE OF DEBENTURE

TO: The United States Patent and Trademark Office

AND TO: All others whom it may concern

WHEREAS

- a) Alcell Technologies Inc. ("Alcell") executed a Form A56 Debenture dated on February 12, 1993 (the "Original Debenture") in favour of Her Majesty The Queen In Right of Canada As Represented By The Minister of Industry, Science and Technology ("Industry Canada") which Debenture was registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "USPTO") on March 12, 1993;
- b) The Original Debenture was supplemented by a further Debenture from Alcell to Industry Canada dated August 16, 1993 (the "Supplemental Debenture") which was not registered in the USPTO;
- c) The Original Debenture and the Supplemental Debenture were amended by a Debenture Amending Agreement (the "Debenture Amendment") dated as of April 15, 1995 which was not registered in the USPTO;
- d) The Original Debenture and the Supplemental Debenture as amended by the Debenture Amendment are hereinafter collectively referred to as the Debentures; and
- e) There has been no assignment of the Debentures and Industry Canada is the party entitled to release and discharge the Debentures and has agreed to do so.

NOW THEREFORE, Industry Canada as holder of the Debentures, hereby:

1. Releases and discharges all the property and assets of Alcell mortgaged and charged by the fixed and specific mortgages, pledges, charges and assignments of the Debentures and releases the floating charges and security interests contained in and created by the Debentures; and
2. Requests and directs the USPTO to enter a minute of satisfaction and discharge of the Debentures in their records in due form of law required.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF Industry Canada has caused this Discharge of Debentures to be duly executed this 15th day of November, 2001.
