LICENSE TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

WHEREAS, Drs. Edward Rosenberg and Robert J. Fischer have invented "Materials and Methods for the Separation of Copper Ions and Ferric Ions in Liquid Solutions" and filed a patent application thereon in the United States, entitled "Materials and Methods for the Separation of Copper Ions and Ferric Iron" and bearing Serial Number 09/776,303 and filing date February 1, 2001; and

WHEREAS, invention was made in the course of research supported by the National Science Foundation under NSF SBIR Grant DMI-9961006; and

WHEREAS, the United States Government is entitled to certain rights in and to said invention and application by reason of the terms relating to such support; and

WHEREAS, The University of Montana, hereinafter called the "Licensor" has acquired by assignment from the inventors the entire right, title and interest of the inventors to such invention;

NOW, THEREFORE:

1. The Licensor, in consideration of the premised and other good and valuable consideration, hereby grants and conveys to the United States Government a non-exclusive, non-transferable, paid-up license to make, use and sell the invention throughout the world by or on behalf of the Government of the United States and states and domestic municipal governments under the aforesaid patent application and any and all divisions or continuations, and in any and all patents or reissues which may be granted thereon during the full term or terms thereof.

2. The Licensor covenants and warrants that he has the right to grant the foregoing license, and that any assignment or license which he may make of the invention of the said patent application or patents thereon, shall expressly be made subject to this license.

3. The Licensor agrees that the Government shall not be stopped at any time to contest the enforceability, validity, scope of or title to any patent or patent application herein licensed.

4. This License shall not limit the rights reserved to the government under the contract(s), grant(s), or other arrangement(s) under which said invention was made.

Signed this 19th day of March, 2001.
