PATENT

REEL: 13625 FRAME: 0436

I, JANOS KOLLONITSCH, currently residing in the Town of Westfield, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

FIRST: I would ask that on my death a memorial service of organ music be held in my memory at the Newark Cathedral.

SECOND: I give, devise and bequeath all of my tangible personal property to such of my children, KATALIN KOLLONITSCH and JANOS KOLLONITSCH, as survive me to be divided between them in shares of substantially equal value in such manner as they shall mutually determine or if they cannot agree, then as my executors shall determine in their sole and absolute discretion, provided, however, if I leave a letter or list signed by me directing the specific disposition of any of such tangible personal property, I direct my executors to distribute such property as so directed.

THIRD: I direct that all real property owned by me at the time of my death be sold at such times and on such terms as my executors in their sole discretion shall determine and the proceeds shall be added to my residuary estate.

FOURTH: If my former wife, VALERIE KOLLONITSCH, survives me, I give and bequeath to her the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) less any life insurance proceeds which may be payable to her by reason of my death, such bequest being made to her in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in paragraph 5 of a Consent Order signed by Judge John Pisensky and filed by him on March 20, 1989, such other Consent Orders as there may be with respect to Kollonitsch v. Kollonitsch, Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Family Part, Union County, Docket No. FM-00934-87. I direct that this bequest be paid in full before any amounts are paid on any other bequests and/or devises. This transfer was made to affect the division of property owned by myself and VALERIE KOLLONITSCH at the time of the cessation of our marriage; specifically in exchange for her relinquished share of my pension benefits.

FIFTH: All the rest, residue and remainder of the property both real and personal of every kind and description and wherever owned by me and subject to my disposal by Will at my death including any property hereinbefore mentioned but not effectually disposed of (all such property being herein sometimes called my residuary estate), I give, devise and bequeath as follows:

(a) Forty-five percent (45%) thereof to my son, JANOS KOLLONITSCH, if he survives me, or if he does not to his issue surviving me in equal shares, per stirpes, or if none, this bequest shall be added to the bequest under paragraph (b) below.

(b) If my daughter, KATALIN KOLLONITSCH, survives me, Forty-five percent (45%) thereof to my trustees, IN TRUST, to hold, invest and reinvest said sum as the principal of a separate trust hereunder, collect the income therefrom and, after deducting from said income all proper charges and expenses, in each year pay to or apply to the use of my said daughter so much of the net income and of the principal as they, in their sole discretion, shall determine to be advisable for her health, education, maintenance and welfare. Any net income not so paid or applied shall be added to principal. Upon the death of my said daughter the trust shall terminate and any remaining principal shall be distributed to her then living issue or if none to my then living issue, or if she does not survive me the 45% shall be distributed to her then living issue or if none to my then living issue, in each case in equal shares, per stirpes.

(c) Five percent (5%) thereof to my nephew, FERENC KOVACSHEGYI, presently residing, at 1023 Budapest, Repkeny - U. 18 (Hungary), or if he does not survive me to his issue surviving me in equal shares, per stirpes, or if none, to be added to the bequest under paragraph (d) below.

(d) Five percent (5%) thereof to my nephew, PAL KOVACSHEGYI, presently residing, at 1195 Budapest, Jokai - U. 18, 6 E.M. 17 (Hungary), or if he does not survive me to his issue surviving me in equal shares, per stirpes, or if none, to be added to the bequest under paragraph (c) above.

SIXTH: (a) If any part of my residuary estate or the principal of any trust upon the termination thereof is payable or distributable to any grandchild of mine who is under the age of 30 years, such property shall be transferred to or retained by my trustees, IN TRUST, to hold, invest and reinvest as the principal of a separate trust hereunder, collect the income therefrom and, after deducting from said income all proper charges and expenses, in each year pay at least quarterly to or apply to the use of such beneficiary all of the net income, except that if and so long as the beneficiary is a minor (under the age of 21) my trustees shall apply to his or her use only so much, if any, of the net income as my trustees shall deem advisable and shall add to principal from time to time any balance of net income not so applied. My trustees shall be authorized also to pay to or apply to the use of such beneficiary at any time and from time to time so much of the principal of such trust (even to the extent of wholly terminating the trust) as my trustees may deem advisable for the health, support, maintenance, or education of the beneficiary or the purchase of a home or business or the entrance into a profession by the beneficiary after giving such consideration as my trustees may deem feasible and appropriate to other financial resources available for the purpose for which such payment or application is proposed to be made. Subject to earlier termination as provided hereunder, when the beneficiary attains the age of 25 years or if he or she has attained that age at the time this trust is funded, he or she shall have the right to request that the trustees pay over to him or her such sum or sums as he or she shall request from time to time, but not to exceed in the aggregate one-half the principal value when he or she attained age 25 (or one-half the value of the trust when it was established if over 25 at that time) and when the beneficiary attains the age of 30 years (but in no event later than 21 years after the death of all of my issue living on the date of my death when it shall become payable to him or her), he or she shall have the right to request the remainder of the trust. In the event of the death of such beneficiary before the termination of the trust, such trust shall thereupon terminate and my trustees shall pay over and distribute any then remaining principal to the then living issue of the beneficiary, or in default of such issue to the then living issue of the ancestor of such beneficiary who is issue of mine and who has issue then living, or in default of such issue to my then living issue in each case in equal shares, per stirpes, and subject to the provisions of this will.

(b) If upon the death of any beneficiary hereunder, all or any part of the then remaining principal of any trust under this Article shall, pursuant to the last sentence of the preceding paragraph, be payable or distributable to any then living person for whose benefit my trustees are then holding property in trust under this Article, the entire amount so payable or distributable shall instead be added to and thereafter constitute a part of the principal of such trust.

SEVENTH: If at the time of my death or the termination of any trust hereunder, none of my issue are then living, I give, devise and bequeath such property as would otherwise pass to my issue in equal shares to the following: my former wife VALERIE KOLLONITSCH, my nephew FERENC KOVACSHEGYI and my nephew PAL KOVACSHEGYI with the share of any such nephew who is not then living to pass to his then living issue in equal shares, per stirpes.

EIGHTH: IF at any time fixed in this Will for any distribution of income or principal, any beneficiary entitled thereto shall be a minor (less than 21 years of age), or shall have been adjudicated an incompetent, or shall be, in the sole judgment of my executors or trustees, otherwise unable to apply such income or principal to his or her own best interest and advantage, the title to the property to be distributed shall vest in such person, but during the existence of such condition or disability the income or principal to which such person is entitled may be retained by my executors or trustees, who in that event shall hold, invest or reinvest and use so much of such income or principal as my executors or trustees, in such fiduciaries' sole and absolute discretion, may deem appropriate for such person's maintenance, health and comfort, or for his or her education, or for any emergency needs of such person, either by the payment of bills directly or by payments to such other person or persons as my executors or trustees may select, without the intervention of a guardian, committee or other fiduciary. The receipts of such payees shall completely discharge my executors or trustees with respect to such payments. Upon the termination of the condition or disability, the unexpended income or principal or both, as the case may be, shall be distributed to such person. If such person dies during the existence of the condition or disability, any unexpended income and principal held for such person under this Article shall be distributed to the personal representative of his or her estate.

As an alternative, my executors or trustees may also, in such fiduciaries' sole discretion, distribute the share of any minor beneficiary to the minor's parents or surviving parent, guardian or custodian under a "gifts to minors" act, to a bank account in such minor's name or directly to such minor.

NINTH: All estate, inheritance and other death taxes by whatever name called, and any and all interest and penalties thereon, payable by reason of my death, whether or not the property in respect of which such taxes are imposed shall pass under this will, shall be paid out of my residuary estate as an expense of administration, without contribution or apportionment, and I authorize my executors, if deemed advisable in my executors' sole discretion, to compromise with the proper officers of any government, any tax, and to pay the amount so fixed and determined.

TENTH: I appoint THOMAS C. PHELAN, presently residing at 257 Kimball Avenue, Westfield, New Jersey, and SUMMIT BANK, a New Jersey banking corporation with offices in Westfield, New Jersey to be the executors hereof and the trustees hereunder.

I direct that no bond or other security shall be required of any of the executors or trustees named herein in any jurisdiction wherein such executors or trustees may be called upon to act, or if required, that no surety thereon shall be required.

None of my trustees shall in any way be liable for the acts, omissions or defaults of any other, and in the event of the death, disability or resignation of any trustees, any survivor of or successor to such trustees shall be relieved of any duty (but not of the right) to require an accounting of the acts and transactions of such trustees.

ELEVENTH: In addition to the powers herein specifically granted and those given by law, the executors and trustees, in the exercise of his discretion and without order of any court, may

(a) Continue to hold and to retain or to sell any or all bonds, stocks, mortgages, evidences of indebtedness, real or personal property or business and other investments which may form part of my estate or any trust hereunder or which may become part thereof notwithstanding the fact that any or all thereof, or any portion thereof, individually or as a group any not be authorized by law as legal investments for fiduciaries or notwithstanding the fact that the entire estate or trust fund or any part thereof (no matter how large a part) may be invested in the stock or other securities or obligations of one corporation or in only one kind or class of investment property;

(b) Borrow from anyone, including himself, individually or as executors or trustees under this instrument or any other instruments, with or without pledge or mortgage of any assets of any such estate or trust, any sum or sums which, in the independent judgment of the executors and trustees may at any time be necessary or advisable to provide funds for any obligation or purpose which they deem proper;

(c) Vote in person or by general, limited or discretionary proxy, or give consent for any purpose, in respect of any stocks or other securities constituting assets of the estate or any trust hereunder and exercise or sell any rights of subscription or other rights in respect thereof;

(d) Delegate discretionary powers to agents, remunerate them, and pay their expenses and employ and pay the compensation of accountants and custodians, legal and investment counsel;

(e) Hold property in the name of the executors or trustees or in the name of a nominee; and

(f) Exercise any appropriate powers enumerated in N.J.S.A. 3B:14-23 as the same is presently in effect or as it may hereafter be supplemented or amended and generally while acting in a fiduciary capacity, to do such acts, exercise such rights and privileges and execute and deliver such instruments with respect to any such property, consistent with the provisions of this Will and the requirements of law, as they would be entitled to do if the absolute owners thereof.

TWELFTH: Whenever my trustees, in his sole and absolute discretion, shall determine that the size of any trust hereunder does not warrant the cost of continuing the trust, my trustees, without the permission or order of any court, may terminate the trust. Upon such termination, the entire balance remaining shall be paid over to the beneficiary entitled to the income thereof at that time. In deciding whether to terminate such trust, my trustees need not consider the interests of remaindermen and their respective interests in the trust share in question shall cease upon termination by my trustees.

THIRTEENTH: It is my desire that there be no public or judicial accounting of the administration of my estate or any trust established under this Will, but nothing herein shall preclude my executors, trustees or any beneficiary hereof from seeking a judicial accounting of such administration. The written approval by all of the then living adult and competent beneficiaries of this Will, or of the trust hereunder, of any matter relating to or arising in the course of the administration of my estate or the trust established under this Will, whether the same relates to an accounting or any action taken or omitted or proposed to be taken or omitted by my executors or trustees shall be binding upon all the beneficiaries hereof, including those who are minors or as yet unborn at the time of such accounting.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 22nd day of March, 1996.
