ASSIGNMENT - PATENT

The ASSIGNOR, Thomas V. Taylor, M.D., an individual having an address at 1806 Vassar, Houston, Texas 77098, is the inventor of a multiple-specimen, endoscopic biopsy forceps described and claimed in an application for U.S. Letters Patent Ser. No. 09/678,268, filed October 3, 2000.

The ASSIGNEE, Reflux Corporation, a Texas corporation having an address at P.O. Box 55156, Houston, Texas 77255-5156 wishes to acquire the entire right, title and interest in and to the design, patent application and any U.S. Letters Patent that may issue thereon.

For valuable and legally sufficient considerations, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Assignor sells, assigns and transfers to Assignee, its successors and assigns, the entire right, title and interest for in and to the above-identified invention, application and any Letters Patent to be issued thereon for the full terms thereof.

The Assignor also sells, assigns and transfers to Assignee the entire right, title and interest in and to the design and any applications for Letters Patent and Letters Patent therefor in all countries foreign to the United States including all rights under the International Convention. The Assignor further authorizes Assignee to apply for Letters Patent in foreign countries in the name of Assignee, and to claim the priority of the filing date of the United States Application under the provisions of the International Convention.

The Assignor further agrees, for himself and his legal representatives, that he will assist Assignee in the prosecution before the United States Patent Office and the Federal Courts these Letter Patent, and other applications for Letters Patent including renewals, continuations, divisions, reissues and substitutions, that the Assignee elects to make covering the inventions. The Assignor vests in Assignee like exclusive title in and to all such other applications and Letters Patent. The Assignor will execute and deliver to Assignee any documents which may be requested by Assignee to carry out the terms of this Assignment.

The Commissioner of Patents of the United States is authorized and requested to issue Letters Patent of the United States to Assignee. The Assignor also authorizes and requests the equivalent authorities in foreign countries to issue the patents of foreign countries to Assignee.
