ASSIGNMENT

WHEREAS, We, Christopher Miller, Bryan Perry, Robert E. Lee, and Stephen H. Fairbanks, respectively of North Vancouver, British Columbia; West Seneca, New York; Camrose, Canada; and El Centro, California, hereafter referred to as applicant, have invented certain new and useful improvements in Device for Administration of Nitric Oxide to Horses Spontaneously Breathing for which an application for a United States Patent is filed herewith and executed herewith as well, and

WHEREAS Pulmonox Technologies Corporation of Tofield, Alberta Canada herein referred to as assignee, whose mailing address is 5243-53 Avenue, Tofield, Alberta, Canada is desirous of acquiring the entire right, title and interest in the same;

NOW, therefore, in consideration of the sum of one dollar ($1.00), the receipt whereof is acknowledged, and other good consideration, we, the applicants, by these presents do sell, assign and transfer unto the assignee (1) the full and exclusive right to the invention in the United States and any other country which assignee elects to file a patent application therein, (2) the entire right, title and interest in and to any all Patents (in the U.S. and foreign countries) which may be granted therefor in the United States or other countries; (3) the entire right, title and interest to abandon the application or Patent, file a reexamination of the Patent, file a re-issue of the Patent, file an opposition for and/or against the Patent and/or application, enforce the rights of this Patent. We hereby authorize and request the Commissioner of Patent and Trademark Office of the United States and any other corresponding country to issue the Patent to the assignee, of the entire, right, title and interest in and to the same, for their sole use and behalf; and for the use and behalf of its legal representatives, heirs and licensees, to the full end of the term for which the Patent may be granted, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by us had this assignment and sale not been made.
