NON-EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT THEREOF

1. Whereas, Jose Orlando Matus, Jr., (hereinafter "OWNER"), an individual residing at 3860 Jack Wilson Road, Gainesville, Georgia 30506, is the owner of United States Patent No. 6,485,118 B2 and United States Patent Application Serial No. 10/243,234, which claims priority to Provisional Patent Application Serial No. 60/318,899; (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Patents") and whereas OWNER has previously granted a non-exclusive, permanent license for the life of the Patents to KNS Distributors, LLC, of 2225 Elizabeth St., Metairie, LA 70003 (hereinafter "LICENSEE"), and whereas the parties to that earlier license wish to memorialize the license,

2. NOW for $10 and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby acknowledge and confirm that on or about November 15, 2001 OWNER did grant, convey and sell to LICENSEE a permanent, paid-up, non-exclusive license in the Patents for any territory covered by the Patents, the license to expire upon the expiration of the Patents. The rights conveyed by this license grant include the right to make, sell, use, and offer to sell products or processes covered by the Patents. Included in this right to make such products is the right to have such products made for LICENSEE by a third party. The parties hereto further acknowledge that LICENSEE has no right to enforce the Patents and has no right to grant any sub-license in the Patents. While LICENSEE has no right to grant any sub-license in the Patents, the license owned by LICENSEE can be transferred without permission of OWNER. In the event of bankruptcy of LICENSEE, the license granted to LICENSEE shall revert to OWNER.

3. In the event that the earlier grant of license is defective for some reason, nonetheless it is the wish of the parties that a license grant be effective at least as of the execution of this document. Therefore, in the event that the earlier grant is not effective, OWNER hereby grants to LICENSEE a permanent, paid-up, non-exclusive license in the Patents for any territory covered by the Patents, the license to expire upon the expiration of the Patents and to cover any activities of LICENSEE prior to the execution of this document. The rights conveyed by this license grant include the right to make, sell, use, and offer to sell products or processes covered by the Patents. Included in this right to make such products is the right to have such products made for LICENSEE by a third party. The license conveyed to LICENSEE hereby does not convey to LICENSEE any right to enforce the Patents, nor any right to grant any sub-license in the Patents. While LICENSEE has no right to grant any sub-license in the Patents, the license conveyed to LICENSEE can be transferred without permission of OWNER. In the event of bankruptcy of LICENSEE, the license granted to LICENSEE shall revert to OWNER.
