DIESEL SYSTEMS GROUP - STANADYNE, INC.
INVENTION AND/OR IMPROVEMENT RELEASE
NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

In consideration of my employment by the Hfd Division of Diesel Systems Group, Stanadyne, Inc., and in consideration of the compensation paid me by that Company for my services during my employment by it, I hereby agree:

That all improvements and/or inventions of any nature which I may make or devise, alone or jointly with others, during my employment by the Company, which have any connection with the manufacturing or other related businesses in which the Company is engaged and which form a reasonable extension of the business of the Company, shall belong to the Company.

I further agree that I will communicate promptly to the Company any improvements and/or inventions which I may make or devise in the course of my employment by the Company, and that I will promptly sign all papers necessary for the preparation, filing, prosecution and assignment to the Company of any patent applications, United States and foreign, based upon said improvements and/or inventions, which the Company may present to me for signature.

I further understand and recognize that all technical, manufacturing, financial, sales and cost information and any other secret or confidential data pertaining to the Company and/or the Division is the sole property of the Company, and that I have no right to disclose the same to anyone at any time unless an officer of the Company or the Division shall have previously consented to or authorized such disclosure in writing. In the event my employment is terminated, no papers, drawings, or other matter belonging to the Company's business, developments, or investigations, shall be taken without the written consent or approval of an officer of the Company or the Division, and for a period of one year following my termination of employment I agree not to divulge or to inform a competitor of the Company as to the knowledge I may have concerning such information and pertaining to the products or business of the Company.
