The managers of the Companies AVENTIS PHARMA S.A. and GENCELL SA have informed their respective Management Board and Board of Directors of the project for a partial transfer of assets to be made by the Transferring Company to the benefit of the company GENCELL SA. This partial transfer of assets involves the entirety of the independent gene therapy division currently existing within the Transferring Company.

In order to finalize this project for partial transfer of assets (hereafter referred to as "Transfer of Assets"), both Parties have drawn up the present contract (hereafter referred to as "the Contract"), in which the terms and conditions of the Transfer of Assets are laid down, and in which the fixed worth of the assets transferred to the Company GENCELL SA by the Transferring Company is specified. In accordance with article L236-22 of French Commercial Law, this operation is governed by the legal provisions pertaining to demergers.

B – OBJECTIVES AND GROUNDS FOR TRANSFER OF ASSETS

The objectives and grounds that have led the managers of the Transferring Company to consider this partial transfer of assets can be analyzed as follows:

Within the pharmaceuticals group AVENTIS there currently exists a gene therapy division, commonly known under the name "GENCELL".

It is the group AVENTIS PHARMA's will to transfer this activity to a subsidiary company, and in doing so, to carry out a partial transfer of assets involving the entire branch of activity represented by the division GENCELL.

All the assets involved in the running of GENCELL as well as the specific liabilities of GENCELL's activity will be transferred to the Company GENCELL SA.

The present Contract is established to ensure the transfer of this branch of activity.
