Pursuant to the decision of the court of July 18, 2004 a provisional attachment was imposed on:

Attachment on Parent: COMPARISON IN NATURAL LANGUAGE US PATENT PENDING

which is payable to the Defendant and is in your possession up to the sum of NIS 1,019,219, to secure a civil claim in the sum of NIS 794,519, court costs and lawyer's fee.

The attachment was imposed at the request of the attorney of the party seeking the attachment:

Name: Rami Cargola Address: 10 Hata'as, Kfar Saba

1. Pursuant to Regulation 376 of the Civil Procedure Regulations, you are to respond in writing to the above court within 10 days of receipt of the present Notice as to whether or not you hold assets or funds belonging to the said Defendants and what the asset or the amount deposited is.
You must submit your response to the court and send a copy of your response directly to the plaintiff's attorney.
2. Should you fail to acknowledge within 10 days of receipt of the present notice that the Defendant's assets are in your possession, or should you object on any other grounds to the approval of the attachment, or should you fail to respond at all by the date designated, the Plaintiff may, pursuant to Regulation 378(a), submit to the court within 15 days after receipt of your response or after the said date, a substantiated written application to approve the attachment.
3. An application to approve attachment is tantamount to a statement of claim and the "stakeholder" is tantamount, in terms of the approval of the attachment, to a Defendant, mutatis mutandis, as the case may be.
4. The attached assets should not be delivered to the respondent or to any other person pending receipt of another instruction from the present court or from the Execution Office, otherwise you shall be liable to the amount of the attachment.
