CORRECTIVE PATENT ASSIGNMENT

WHEREAS, we, Joe Gaidjiergis, Lloyd Fladgard and Scott Fladgard (hereinafter referred to as INVENTORS), respectively, are the joint inventors of an invention entitled "METHODS AND APPARATUS FOR MANUFACTURING FIBER-CEMENT SOFFITS WITH AIR VENTS," as described and claimed in United States Letters Patent No. 6,468,453, issued October 22, 2002;

WHEREAS, under an instrument executed on January 31, 2000 and February 1, 2000, INVENTORS purported to sell, assign and transfer to "Shear Technologies, LLC." INVENTORS' entire right, title and interest in and to said letters patent which assignment was filed of record with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on or about February 22, 2000;

WHEREAS, under an instrument executed February 14, 2003, Shear Technologies, LLC purported to sell, assign and transfer to "Shear Technologies, Inc." Shear Technologies, LLC's entire right, title and interest in and to said letters patent which assignment was filed of record with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on or about March 7, 2003.

WHEREAS, due to a clerical error and without deceptive intent by any of the parties, the name of the intended assignee as set forth in the foregoing Assignments was misstated, the correct name and intended "Assignee" being "Shear Tech, Inc.," a Washington corporation that was formed under the Washington State Business Corporations Act, Revised Code of Washington Title 23B, on December 8, 2000 and which was assigned Washington State Unified Business Identifier (UBI) 602 083 956.

WHEREAS, Shear Technologies, LLC was never formed and never was the intended "Assignee" of the above-described invention and patent or any other right or asset.

WHEREAS, although there previously was a corporate entity named "Shear Technologies, Inc." formed in Washington State on November 10, 1999, such entity was never organized, never had shareholders or officers, never had assets or operations, never was the intended "Assignee" of the above-described invention and patent or of any other right or asset, and was abandoned and allowed to be administratively dissolved as of November 30, 2003;

WHEREAS, to the contrary, Shear Tech, Inc. (UBI 602 083 956) has for all purposes is acknowledged and agreed by all interested parties as the intended assignee of the patent and has been regarded and treated, since the time of the foregoing Assignment, as the legal owner and owner-in-fact of all right, title and interest in the above-described invention and patent, including for purposes of exercising the exclusive right to license and receive royalties on the patent, and has reported and paid state, local and federal taxes on such royalties, has established its books and records and conducted its business operations as the sole and exclusive owner of such patent, and has made distributions of its profits received from such royalty streams to its shareholders;

WHEREAS, the parties wish to correct the drafting error in the above-described Assignments at this time by having the INVENTORS, as the inventors re-execute this corrected Assignment to the intended ASSIGNEE, nunc pro tunc retroactive to the date of the original Assignment;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, INVENTORS hereby sell, assign and transfer unto "Shear Tech, Inc." (a Washington corporation that was formed on December 8, 2000 and was assigned Washington State UBI 602 083 956), as the original and intended ASSIGNEE, the entire right, title and interest in and to said letters patent and in any and all divisions, reissues and continuations thereof, and to any and all foreign applications directly in the name of ASSIGNEE and the right to claim priority rights thereof, said letters patent to be held and enjoyed by ASSIGNEE for its use and benefit and of its successors and assigns as fully and entirely as the same would have been held and enjoyed by ASSIGNOR had this assignment, transfer and sale not been made. INVENTORS agree to execute all instruments and documents required for litigation regarding said letters patent, or for the purpose of protecting title to said invention or letters patent therefor.

This Assignment is effective as of dated July 5, 2005, and is intended to correct and supercede the prior Assignment.
