NUNC PRO TUNC ASSIGNMENT

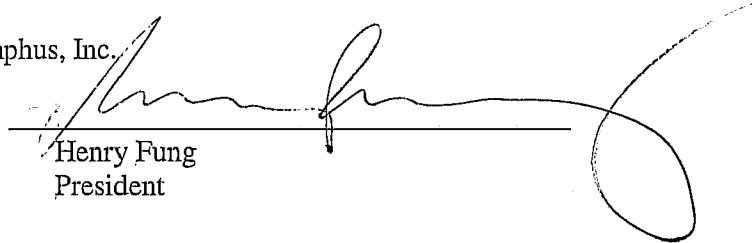

WHEREAS, Amphus, Inc., a California corporation ("AMPHUS"), and St. Clair Intellectual Property Consultants, Inc., a Michigan corporation ("SCI") entered into a Patent Sale Agreement having an effective date of June 16, 2000;

WHEREAS, by the terms of the Patent Sale Agreement, AMPHUS sold, assigned, transferred and conveyed to SCI, its successors and assigns, all right, title and interest in and to certain patents and patent applications, including all divisions, continuations, continuations-in-part, reissues, renewals, reexaminations and extensions thereof, together with all claims, demands or causes of action that AMPHUS had or might have had by reason of any infringement of the certain patents and patent applications prior to the effective date of the Patent Sale Agreement, including the right to sue for past infringement and the right to collect all damages for such past infringement in the name of SCI;

WHEREAS, it has come to SCI's attention that the listing of patents and patent applications included in Exhibit A to the Patent Sale Agreement included a typographical error such that the application entitled "SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR TASK PERFORMANCE BASED DYNAMIC DISTRIBUTED POWER MANAGEMENT IN A COMPUTER SYSTEM AND DESIGN METHOD" was identified as Serial No. 09/326,271 rather than 09/376,271;

WHEREAS, the parties wish to ratify and confirm the assignment and transfer of the entire right, title and interest in and to any and all rights and privileges regarding the patents and patent applications set forth in the Patent Sale Agreement, including U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/376,271 (now U.S. Patent No. 6,115,823) as set forth above; and

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, AMPHUS does hereby sell, assign, transfer and convey nunc pro tunc, at least as early as June 16, 2000, but prior to the date of execution hereof, to SCI, its successors and assigns, all right, title and interest in and to U.S. Patent Application No. 09/376,271 (now U.S. Patent No. 6,115,823), including all divisions, continuations, continuations-in-part, reissues, renewals, reexaminations and extensions thereof, together with all claims, demands or causes of action that AMPHUS had or might have had by reason of any infringement of U.S. Patent Application No. 09/376,271 (now U.S. Patent No. 6,115,823) prior to the effective date of the Patent Sale Agreement, including the right to sue for past infringement and the right to collect all damages for such past infringement in the name of SCI, effective June 16, 2000.
