CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

The undersigned employee or consultant acknowledges that in the course of his or her employment with or engagement at AAC Corporation (the "Company"), he or she will acquire Company information which is confidential and proprietary to Company and its subsidiary companies. Confidential information is defined to mean: (a) general trade and business information including, without limitation, information and data received from Company clients, distributors, employees, consultants, vendors, Company agents, and attorneys, in the normal course of business whether under confidential conditions or not; and, (b) other technical, business, product, or financial information and data received in the course of his or her employment with or engagement at, the Company.

The undersigned therefore understands and agrees that: (a) he or she will keep such information confidential at all times during and after the term of employment or engagement with the Company; (b) will not disclose or discuss or communicate this information to any person or firm; and, (c) will not exploit or make use of Company information for gain or profit, nor use this information for, or on behalf of, any other individual or organization.

Any and all products, services, processes and technologies developed during the course of employment at the Company are and will remain, upon conclusion of employment, the proprietary property of the Company.

The undersigned waives all rights regarding the ownership of any and all products, services, processes and technologies developed during the course of employment at the Company.

Any unauthorized disclosure or communication of this information to any person or persons not authorized to see, hear or make use of this information; any disclosure of any information received in the course of employment or engagement to any competitor; or, any other violation or threatened violation of this agreement will cause irreparable damage and harm to the Company. Therefore, the Company shall be entitled to seek an injunction prohibiting the employee or consultant signing this agreement from any continued disclosure or attempted threatened violation of this agreement. When particular information becomes generally available to the public other than by violation of this agreement and unauthorized disclosure by the employee or consultant signing below, then that particular information shall no longer be subject to the restrictions set forth above.
