DECLARATION OF DAVID F. CROSBY

I, David F. Crosby, am a member of the law firm Mintz Levin Cohn Ferris Glovsky and Popeo PC in Boston, Massachusetts. I am admitted to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

On November 17, 2006, I spoke by telephone with Christopher J. Rourk, an attorney with the law firm Jackson Walker LLP in Dallas Texas. It is my understanding that Mr. Rourk is admitted to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

During my November 17, 2006 telephone conversation with Mr. Rourk, he confirmed that he prepared and filed PCT application serial no. PCT/US02/00503, filed on January 16, 2002, which is related to US patent application serial no. 10/892,690, filed on July 16, 2004.

During my November 17, 2006 telephone conversation with Mr. Rourk, he confirmed that he prepared and filed US provisional patent application serial no. 60/351,470 which was filed after the PCT application on January 25, 2002.

During my November 17, 2006 telephone conversation with Mr. Rourk, he stated that US provisional patent application serial no. 60/351,470 is identical to PCT application serial no. PCT/US02/00503 and US patent application serial no. 10/892,690.

In re U.S. Application Serial No. 10/892,690
Declaration of David F. Crosby

I have reviewed the inventions and the subject matter disclosed in the above identified patent applications. The specification of PCT application serial no. PCT/US02/00503 and US provisional patent application serial no. 60/351,470 are the same except for formatting and pagination. The inventions disclosed in the PCT application (PCT/US02/00503) and US provisional patent application serial no. 60/351,470 are the same invention. US patent application serial no. 10/892,690 was filed as a continuation of PCT application serial no. PCT/US02/00503 and claims the benefit of priority of PCT application serial no. PCT/US02/00503.

The Assignment executed by Alex Krichevsky on January 25, 2002 assigns to the Cornerstone Group, Ltd. his "entire right title and interest in and to" the invention described in US provisional patent application serial no. 60/351,470 and "(c) all United States and foreign patents which shall issue on said invention." Accordingly, because PCT application serial no. PCT/US02/00503 and US patent application serial no. 10/892,690 are directed to the same invention as the invention disclosed in US provisional patent application serial no. 60/351,470, Mr. Krichevsky also assigned the PCT application serial no. PCT/US02/00503 and US patent application serial no. 10/892,690 to the Cornerstone Group, Ltd.

Respectfully submitted,

David F. Crosby
