WHEREAS, Assignor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to new and useful improvements described in certain patents and patent applications listed in Exhibit A hereto (the "Transferred Patents"); and

1. Assignor does hereby irrevocably sell, assign, and transfer unto Assignee its successors, legal representatives, and assigns, the full, exclusive, non-revocable, and worldwide rights currently owned or acquired in the future in, to and under the improvements and the Transferred Patents; all inventions and discoveries described therein; any and all patents issuing from the Transferred Patents, any continuation, divisional, continuation-in-part applications, reissues, and re-examinations thereof; any foreign counterparts of the Transferred Patents, and any and all patents issuing thereon, and any continuation, divisional, continuation-in-part applications, reissues, and re-examinations thereof that exist as of the date hereof; including any and all claims, causes of action, and rights to damages and all other remedies arising out of any violation of the rights assigned hereby that may have accrued prior to the date of assignment to Assignee, or may accrue hereafter, including, but not limited to, the right to sue for, collect, and retain damages for past, present or future infringements of the Transferred Patents before or after issuance. The assignment of the Transferred Patents includes all documents related to the conception, diligence and reduction to practice of the inventions disclosed therein and all domestic and international patent filing documents.

2. Assignor hereby authorizes and requests the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks of the United States, and any officials of foreign patent systems whose duty it is to issue patents or related rights on the Transferred Patents (or any portion thereof) to issue any patent or document conveying rights arising therefrom to Assignee in accordance with the terms of this Assignment for Assignee's sole use and behalf to the full end of the term for which any patent is or may be granted, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by Assignor had this Assignment not been made.

3. Assignor agrees that upon request of Assignee, and without further remuneration, to execute any and all papers desired by Assignee, for full protection and title in and to the Transferred Patents and all patents issuing therein which are hereby transferred, including any and all papers desired by Assignee for the filing and granting of foreign applications and the perfecting of the rights thereto in Assignee.

6. Assignor agrees that if any provision of this Assignment shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unenforceable, such decision shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this Assignment but shall be confined in its operation to the provision of this Assignment directly involved in the controversy in which the decision was rendered. The invalid or unenforceable provision shall be reformed so that Assignor shall have the obligation to perform reasonably in the alternative to give the Assignee the benefit of its bargain. In the event the invalid or unenforceable provision cannot be reformed, the other provisions or applications of the Assignment shall be given full effect, and the invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed stricken.
