1. COMMON SHARES

The Common Shares shall be subject to the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

1. Voting.

The holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to one vote for each share held by them at all shareholders' meetings (other than meetings at which only the holders of another specified series or class of shares are entitled to vote, pursuant to the provisions hereof or pursuant to the provisions of the Act) and they shall be entitled to notice of all meetings of shareholders of the Corporation.

2. Dividends.

The holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors, dividends payable in money, property or by the issue of fully paid shares of the capital of the Corporation

3. Liquidation.

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to any class of shares ranking prior to the Common Shares, the holders of the Common Shares shall be entitled to receive the remaining property of the Corporation.

II. SPECIAL PREFERRED SHARES

The Special Preferred Shares shall be subject to the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

After payment to the holders of the Special Preferred Shares of the Liquidation Amount, they shall not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of the Corporation. After the first anniversary of the Amalgamation, the Special Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to share in the distribution of the property or assets of the Corporation in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among shareholders of the Corporation for the purpose of winding up its affairs.

4 Automatic Redemption.

Subject to compliance with Section 36(2) of the Act, upon the occurrence of a Trigger Event, all of the issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares shall be redeemed by the Corporation in the manner set forth in this Section 4.

All holders of Special Preferred Shares shall be given written notice (a "Redemption Notice") of the occurrence of a Trigger Event and specifying the applicable Redemption Date. On the Redemption Date, the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid the Redemption Amount to the registered holders of the Special Preferred Shares upon presentation and surrender of the certificates for the Special Preferred Shares at the registered office of the Corporation or at such other place or places as may be specified in the Redemption Notice, and the certificates for such Special Preferred Shares shall thereupon be cancelled, and the Special Preferred Shares represented thereby shall thereupon be redeemed. From and after the Redemption Date, the holders of the Special Preferred Shares shall cease to be entitled to exercise any of the rights of the holders thereof, except the right to receive the Redemption Amount, unless payment of the Redemption Amount is not made by the Corporation in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of the holders of such shares shall remain unaffected. On or before the Redemption Date, the Corporation shall have the right to deposit the Redemption Amount in a special account with any chartered bank or trust company in Canada named in the Redemption Notice, to be paid, without interest, to or to the order of the respective holders of such Special Preferred Shares, upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing the same and, upon such deposit being made or upon the Redemption Date, whichever is later, the Special Preferred Shares in respect of which such deposit shall have been made, shall be deemed to be redeemed and the rights of the respective holders thereof, after such deposit or after such Redemption Date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving, out of the moneys so deposited, without interest, the Redemption Amount applicable to their respective Special Preferred Shares against presentation and surrender of the certificates representing such Special Preferred Shares

- 4.2 Redemption Amount. Subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 4.3 below, the Redemption Amount per Special Preferred Share shall be equal to:

- (a) if the Trigger Event is pursuant to Section IV.1 13(b) of Article IV, an aggregate of $1.00 divided by the total number of issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares; or
- (b) if the Trigger Event is pursuant to Section IV.1 13(a) of Article IV, an aggregate of $35,000,000 divided by the total number of issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares;

in each case net of any applicable withholding or other similar taxes

- 4.3 Adjustment of Redemption Amount. The Redemption Amount shall be subject to adjustment as follows: if the Distributable Proceeds are greater or less than $35,000,000, then the Redemption Amount per Special Preferred Share shall be equal to the Distributable Proceeds divided by the total number of issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares (in the case of holders of Special Preferred Shares who are non-residents within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada), net of any applicable withholding or other similar taxes); provided however that if the Distributable Proceeds are equal to zero, then the aggregate Redemption Amount shall be equal to $1 00.
- 4.4 Sale of CellCarta Platform. The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to support the sale process with respect to the CellCarta Platform and to execute a definitive agreement for the sale of the CellCarta Platform prior to the first anniversary of the Amalgamation, with a view to bringing about a Trigger Event, while maximizing the value of the CellCarta Platform and the amount, if any, by which Net After-Tax Proceeds will exceed $25,000,000.

5 Amendment.

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the provisions contained in this Article II shall not be deleted or amended unless effected by special resolution of the shareholders of the Corporation duly passed as then required by law, the holders of Special Preferred Shares being entitled to vote separately thereon as a class

Any such notice, request, consent, demand or other communication (i) given to the Corporation shall be addressed to the Corporation at its registered office or at such other address of which the Corporation may notify the holders of Common Shares and Special Preferred Shares from time to time, or (ii) given to a holder of Special Preferred Shares or Common Shares shall be addressed to such holder's address as shown by the records of the Corporation

4.4 Extinction of Rights

Any certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Date represented outstanding Caprion Shares, Caprion Preferred Shares or Ecopia Shares, as the case may be, that was exchanged or was deemed to have been exchanged pursuant to Section 3.1 that has not been deposited with all other instruments required by Section 4.1, on or prior to the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date shall cease to represent a claim or interest of any kind or nature to Amalco Consolidated Shares or Amalco Special Preferred Shares (or cash in respect of fractional interests therein as provided in Section 4.5), as the case may be. On such date, Amalco Consolidated Shares and Amalco Special Preferred Shares, as the case may be, (and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto) (and any cash in respect of fractional interests therein as provided in Section 4.5) to which the former holder of the certificate referred to in the preceding sentence was ultimately entitled shall be deemed to have been surrendered for no consideration to Amalco, together with all entitlements to dividends, distributions, cash and interest in respect thereof held for such former holder. None of Amalco, Caprion, Ecopia or the Depositary shall be liable to any Person in respect of any Amalco Consolidated Shares or Amalco Special Preferred Shares, as the case may be (or distributions) delivered to a public official pursuant to and in compliance with any applicable abandoned property or similar law.

4.5 Fractional Shares Arising from the Amalco Consolidation

No certificates representing fractional Amalco Consolidated Shares arising from the Amalco Consolidation shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of certificates pursuant to Section 4.1 and no dividend, stock split or other change in the capital structure of Amalco shall relate to any such fractional security and such fractional interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to exercise any rights as a security holder of Amalco. Amalco shall deposit with the Depositary the fractional Amalco Consolidated Shares for the benefit of the holders of such fractional Amalco Consolidated Shares. Each Person otherwise entitled to a fractional interest in an Amalco Consolidated Share will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to such Person's pro rata portion of the net proceeds after expenses received by the Depositary upon the sale, on behalf of all such Persons, of whole Amalco Consolidated Shares representing an accumulation of all fractional interests in Amalco Consolidated Shares. The Depositary will sell such Amalco Consolidated Shares on the TSX as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date. The aggregate net proceeds after expenses of such sale will be distributed by the Depositary, pro rata in relation to their respective fractions, among Persons otherwise entitled to receive fractional interests in Amalco Consolidated Shares.

All fractional Amalco Consolidated Shares which the Depositary is required to sell will be pooled and sold as soon as practicable in transactions effected on the TSX. In effecting the sale of any Amalco Consolidated Shares, the Depositary will exercise its sole judgment as to the timing and manner of sale and will not be obligated to seek or obtain a minimum price. Neither Amalco nor the Depositary will be liable for any loss arising out of any sale of such Amalco Consolidated Shares relating to the manner or timing of such sales, the prices at which Amalco Consolidated Shares are sold or otherwise.

4.6 Withholding

Amalco and the Depositary shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any dividend, any cash payment under Section 45 or any other consideration payable to any security holder of Ecopia, Caprion or Amalco such amounts as Amalco or the Depositary is (i) required to deduct and withhold with respect to such payment under the Income Tax Act (Canada), the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any provision of provincial, state, local or foreign tax law, in each case, as amended or replaced, or (ii) entitled to deduct and withhold under Section 116 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) or any corresponding provisions of provincial law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the holder of the shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made, provided that such withheld amounts are actually remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. To the extent that the amount so required or entitled to be deducted or withheld from any payment to a holder exceeds the cash portion of the consideration otherwise payable to the holder, Amalco and the Depositary are hereby authorized to sell or otherwise dispose of such portion of the consideration as is necessary to provide sufficient funds to Amalco or the Depositary, as the case may be, to enable it to comply with such deduction or withholding requirement or entitlement and Amalco or the Depositary shall notify the holder thereof and remit any unapplied balance of the net proceeds of such sale.

ARTICLE 5 RIGHTS OF DISSENT

5.1 Dissent Rights

- (a) Caprion Shareholders and Ecopia Shareholders may exercise rights of dissent with respect to their Caprion Shares, Caprion Preferred Shares or Ecopia Shares, as the case may be, pursuant to and in the manner set forth in Section 190 of the CBCA as modified by this Section 5.1 in connection with the Arrangement, as the same may be modified by the Interim Order or the Final Order (the "Dissent Rights"), provided that, (i) notwithstanding Subsection 190(5) of the CBCA, the written objection to the Arrangement Resolution or the Amalgamation Resolution, as the case may be, referred to in Subsection 190(5) of the CBCA must be received by Caprion or Ecopia, as the case may be, not later than 5:00 p.m. (Montreal time) on the second Business Day preceding the Caprion Meeting or the Ecopia Meeting, as the case may be; and (ii) notwithstanding Section 190 of the CBCA, Amalco and not Caprion or Ecopia, as the case may be, shall be required to offer to pay fair value for Caprion Shares, Caprion Preferred Shares or Ecopia Shares, as the case may be, held by Dissenting Shareholders, and to pay the amount to which such Dissenting Shareholders may be ultimately entitled. Dissenting Shareholders who are ultimately entitled to be paid fair value for their shares shall be deemed to have converted their Caprion Shares, Caprion Preferred Shares or Ecopia Shares, as the case may be, contemporaneously with and in the same manner provided for in Sections 3.1(e)(i), 3.1(e)(ii) and 3.1(e)(iv) without any further authorization, act or formality and free and clear of all Liens, and shall be deemed to have received Amalco Shares and/or Amalco Special Preferred Shares, as the case may be, on the basis set forth in Section 3.1 and, immediately after the last step of the Plan of Arrangement set forth under Section 3.1 shall have occurred, the Amalco Consolidated Shares and/or Amalco Special Shares held by such Dissenting Shareholders shall be purchased for cancellation by Amalco in consideration for a payment from Amalco equal to such fair value

- (b) Shareholders who exercise, or purport to exercise, Dissent Rights, and who withdraw their dissent to the Arrangement or the Amalgamation, as the case may be, or who are ultimately determined not to be entitled, for any reason, to be paid fair value for their Caprion Shares, Caprion Preferred Shares or Ecopia Shares, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have participated in the Arrangement or the Amalgamation, as the case may be, on the same basis as any non-dissenting shareholder as at and from the Effective Date

I. COMMON SHARES

The Common Shares shall be subject to the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

1. Voting.

The holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to one vote for each share held by them at all shareholders' meetings (other than meetings at which only the holders of another specified series or class of shares are entitled to vote, pursuant to the provisions hereof or pursuant to the provisions of the Act) and they shall be entitled to notice of all meetings of shareholders of the Corporation

2. Dividends.

The holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors, dividends payable in money, property or by the issue of fully paid shares of the capital of the Corporation.

3. Liquidation.

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to any class of shares ranking prior to the Common Shares, the holders of the Common Shares shall be entitled to receive the remaining property of the Corporation

4 Amendment.

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the provisions contained in this Article I shall not be deleted or amended unless effected by special resolution of the shareholders of the Corporation duly passed as then required by law, the holders of Common Shares being entitled to vote separately thereon as a class.

11. SPECIAL PREFERRED SHARES

The Special Preferred Shares shall be subject to the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

1 Non-voting.

Subject to the provisions of the Act or as otherwise expressly provided herein, the holders of the Special Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of, nor to attend or vote at, meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation

2. Dividends.

The holders of the Special Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive dividends

3. Liquidation.

Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation prior to the occurrence of a Trigger Event, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, before any amount shall be paid to or any assets distributed among the holders of shares of any other class of the Corporation ranking subordinate to the Special Preferred Shares, the holders of the Special Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the Liquidation Amount. After payment to the holders of the Special Preferred Shares of the Liquidation Amount, they shall not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of the Corporation. After the first anniversary of the Amalgamation, the Special Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to share in the distribution of the property or assets of the Corporation in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among shareholders of the Corporation for the purpose of winding up its affairs.

4 Automatic Redemption.

Subject to compliance with Section 36(2) of the Act, upon the occurrence of a Trigger Event, all of the issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares shall be redeemed by the Corporation in the manner set forth in this Section 4

4.1 Mechanics of Automatic Redemption. All holders of Special Preferred Shares shall be given written notice (a "Redemption Notice") of the occurrence of a Trigger Event and specifying the applicable Redemption Date. On the Redemption Date, the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid the Redemption Amount to the registered holders of the Special Preferred Shares upon presentation and surrender of the certificates for the Special Preferred Shares at the registered office of the Corporation or at such other place or places as may be specified in the Redemption Notice, and the certificates for such Special Preferred Shares shall thereupon be cancelled, and the Special Preferred Shares represented thereby shall thereupon be redeemed. From and after the Redemption Date, the holders of the Special Preferred Shares shall cease to be entitled to exercise any of the rights of the holders thereof, except the right to receive the Redemption Amount, unless payment of the Redemption Amount is not made by the Corporation in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of the holders of such shares shall remain unaffected. On or before the Redemption Date, the Corporation shall have the right to deposit the Redemption Amount in a special account with any chartered bank or trust company in Canada named in the Redemption Notice, to be paid, without interest, to or to the order of the respective holders of such Special Preferred Shares, upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing the same and, upon such deposit being made or upon the Redemption Date, whichever is later, the Special Preferred Shares in respect of which such deposit shall have been made, shall be deemed to be redeemed and the rights of the respective holders thereof, after such deposit or after such Redemption Date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving, out of the moneys so deposited, without interest, the Redemption Amount applicable to their respective Special Preferred Shares against presentation and surrender of the certificates representing such Special Preferred Shares.

4.2 Redemption Amount. Subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 4.3 below, the Redemption Amount per Special Preferred Share shall be equal to:

- (a) if the Trigger Event is pursuant to Section IV.1.13(b) of Article IV, an aggregate of $1.00 divided by the total number of issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares; or
- (b) if the Trigger Event is pursuant to Section IV.1.13(a) of Article IV, an aggregate of $35,000,000 divided by the total number of issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares;

in each case net of any applicable withholding or other similar taxes.

- 4.3 Adjustment of Redemption Amount. The Redemption Amount shall be subject to adjustment as follows: if the Distributable Proceeds are greater or less than $35,000,000, then the Redemption Amount per Special Preferred Share shall be equal to the Distributable Proceeds divided by the total number of issued and outstanding Special Preferred Shares (in the case of holders of Special Preferred Shares who are non-residents within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada), net of any applicable withholding or other similar taxes); provided however that if the Distributable Proceeds are equal to zero, then the aggregate Redemption Amount shall be equal to $1.00.
- 4.4 Sale of CellCarta Platform. The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to support the sale process with respect to the CellCarta Platform and to execute a definitive agreement for the sale of the CellCarta Platform prior to the first anniversary of the Amalgamation, with a view to bringing about a Trigger Event, while maximizing the value of the CellCarta Platform and the amount, if any, by which Net After-Tax Proceeds will exceed $25,000,000.

5. Amendment.

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the provisions contained in this Article II shall not be deleted or amended unless effected by special resolution of the shareholders of the Corporation duly passed as then required by law, the holders of Special Preferred Shares being entitled to vote separately thereon as a class.

III. NOTICES.

All notices, requests, consents, demands and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given, made and received (a) when delivered against receipt; (b) upon transmitter's confirmation of the receipt of a facsimile transmission, which shall be followed by an original sent otherwise in accordance with this Article III; (c) upon confirmed delivery by a standard overnight carrier; or (d) upon expiration of five Business Days after the date when deposited in the mail, first class postage prepaid. Any such notice, request, consent, demand or other communication (i) given to the Corporation shall be addressed to the Corporation at its registered office or at such other address of which the Corporation may notify the holders of Common Shares and Special Preferred Shares from time to time, or (ii) given to a holder of Special Preferred Shares or Common Shares shall be addressed to such holder's address as shown by the records of the Corporation.

V. DISSENT RIGHTS

18. It is proposed that :
- (a) Shareholders and Ecopia shareholders may exercise rights of dissent with respect to their Caprion Shares, Caprion Preferred Shares or Ecopia shares, as the case may be, ("Dissenting Shareholders") pursuant to and in the manner set forth in Section 190 of the CBCA as modified by the Interim Order and the Plan of Arrangement;
 - (b) a Shareholder or an Ecopia shareholder who wishes to dissent shall provide a written objection to the Arrangement Resolution or the Amalgamation Resolution, as the case may be, to, as the case may be, Caprion's Corporate Secretary at Caprion's registered office located at 7510 Alexander Fleming, Montreal, Québec, H4S 2C8 or by facsimile transmission to (514) 940-3620, or to Ecopia's Secretary at Ecopia's registered office located at 7290, Frederick Banting Street, Montreal, Québec, H4S 2A1 or by facsimile transmission to (514) 336-8827, by no later than 5 o'clock p.m. (Montreal time) on March 7, 2007 (or 5 o'clock p.m. (Montreal Time) or on the day that is two business days immediately preceding the relevant Caprion Meeting or the Ecopia Meeting, as the case may be);
 - (c) any Dissenting Shareholder shall be entitled, in the event that the Plan of Arrangement becomes effective, to be paid by Amalco the fair value of its shares held by such Dissenting Shareholder;
19. The rights of the Dissenting Shareholders are set out in detail in the section entitled "Dissent Rights" in the Circular, Exhibit R-1;

VI. APPROVAL BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF CAPRION

20. On January 2, 2007, the board of directors of Caprion met to review the terms of the Plan of Arrangement and related documentation;
21. The board of Caprion considers the Plan of Arrangement in the best interests of Caprion and the Shareholders;
22. Accordingly, the board of Caprion has unanimously approved the Plan of Arrangement and has unanimously recommended that the Shareholders vote FOR the Arrangement Resolution;

VII. FAIRNESS

23. The board of directors of Caprion and Caprion are of the view that the Plan of Arrangement is fair and reasonable, for the following reasons:
- (a) if the Plan of Arrangement is not approved, the Equity Financing will not occur, thereby jeopardizing the continuing of Caprion's operations;
 - (b) the Shareholders will hold 50% of Amalco's total outstanding common shares following the Amalgamation;
 - (c) the opportunity afforded by the Arrangement for Caprion to combine its operations with those of Ecopia will create a leading oncology and infectious disease company with a portfolio of three active clinical therapeutic programs in advanced stages of development in cancer and infectious disease on a rapid path to commercialization and a sustainable pipeline of new opportunities;
 - (d) Amalco will have greater financial and business resources, including human resources, than Caprion alone taking into consideration the Equity Financing;
 - (e) the terms and conditions of the Combination Agreement, which provides for the Amalgamation, do not prevent an unsolicited third party from proposing or making a superior proposal or, provided Caprion complies with the terms of the Combination Agreement (including payment of a termination fee in certain circumstances), preclude the Board from considering and acting on a superior proposal;
 - (f) the terms and conditions of the Combination Agreement, including Caprion's and Ecopia's representations, warranties and covenants, and the conditions to their respective obligations, are, in the judgment of Caprion and its advisors, reasonable and were the product of extensive negotiations between Caprion and its advisors and Ecopia and its advisors;
 - (g) the Arrangement Resolution must be approved by a 66 2/3% majority of the holders of Caprion Shares and a 66 2/3% majority of the holders of Caprion Preferred Shares;
 - (h) management of Caprion has held informal discussions with a number of Shareholders concerning the Arrangement and more than 66 2/3% of holders of Caprion Shares and more than 66 2/3% of holders of Caprion Preferred Shares, separately as classes, have indicated their approval of the arrangement;

24. The board of directors of Ecopia considers on the basis, inter alia, of its review of the terms of the Combination Agreement and related documentation, including the Plan of Arrangement, that the proposed Amalgamation with Caprion as part of the Plan of Arrangement is fair and reasonable to the Ecopia shareholders and in the best interests of Ecopia and its shareholders;

VIII. SOLVENCY

25. Caprion is not insolvent within the meaning of Section 192(2) of the CBCA or otherwise as Caprion (a) is able to pay its liabilities as they become due, and (b) the realizable value of Caprion's assets is higher than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated capital of all classes;

IX. IMPRACTICABILITY

26. It is not practicable to effect the steps and events described in Sections 3.1 of the Plan of Arrangement other than through a plan of arrangement pursuant to Section 192 of the CBCA for the following reasons:
- (a) the need to have all elements of the proposed transaction occur in the correct order;
 - (b) the need to terminate the Caprion Investors Rights Agreement, the Caprion Shareholders Agreement, the Caprion Registration Rights Agreements and the Caprion Voting Trust Agreement;
 - (c) the need to terminate the Caprion Stock Option Plan and cancel the issued and outstanding Caprion Options, which options are essentially worthless;
 - (d) the need for the Court to approve the conversion of (i) the Caprion Shares into Amalco shares and Amalco special preferred shares and (ii) the Caprion Preferred Shares into Amalco preferred shares and Amalco special preferred shares, in order to allow the Shareholders to participate in the proceeds of the eventual sale of CellCarta, pursuant to the CellCarta Reorganization;
 - (e) the need to provide for Dissent Rights as described above which cannot be contemplated in any way other than through a plan of arrangement and an order of the Court; and

- (f) Under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "US Securities Act"), any securities issued in the United States must either be (i) registered under the US Securities Act prior to their issue, or, (ii) issued pursuant to an exemption from registration under the US Securities Act. One such exemption, set forth in section 3(a)(10) of the US Securities Act, reads as follows:

Except with respect to a security exchanged in a case under title 11 of the United States Code, any security which is issued in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities, claims or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash, where the terms and conditions of such issuance and exchange are approved, after a hearing upon the fairness of such terms and conditions at which all persons to whom it is proposed to issue securities in such exchange shall have the right to appear, by any court, or by any official or agency of the United States, or by any State or Territorial banking or insurance commission or other governmental authority expressly authorized by law to grant such approval;

This exemption thus applies to securities issued in exchange for other securities, where the issuance has been approved by a court or an appropriate administrative body after a hearing upon the fairness thereof at which all persons to whom it is proposed to issue such securities shall have the right to appear. If this Honourable Court approves the Plan of Arrangement, the distribution of Amalco securities to Caprion Shareholders and to Ecopia Securityholders located in the United States pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement will not require registration under the US Securities Act, based upon this Honourable Court's approval since it will have followed a hearing on the fairness of the Plan of Arrangement, at which all persons who may receive Amalco securities may be present;

27. As of February 7, 2007, to the best of Caprion's knowledge, approximately 20% of the Shareholders and less than 2% of the Ecopia Securityholders will receive Amalco securities in the United States pursuant to the Amalgamation referred to in Section 3.1(d) of the Plan of Arrangement;

X. CAPRION MEETINGS

28. Caprion proposes to call, hold and conduct the Caprion Meetings on or after March 12, 2007 to consider and, if deemed advisable, to pass, with or without variation, the Arrangement Resolution, being Appendix A to the Circular, Exhibit R-1;

29. For the purpose of calling and holding the Caprion Meetings, it is proposed:
 - (a) that the Proxy Material substantially in the form attached herewith as Exhibits R-1 and R-2 be sent by mail to all Shareholders at the address of each Shareholder as recorded on the books of Caprion on February 7, 2007, at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the Caprion Meetings;
