Agreement Relation to Confidential Information,
Inventions and Conflict of Interest

THIS AGREEMENT is entered into this 9th day of January, 1997 by and between Bob Melteso, hereinafter "Employee" and Thomson Financial Networks Inc., hereinafter "Employer".

In consideration of the Employer's offer of employment to Employee, the acceptance of which Employee hereby acknowledges, Employee agrees as follows:

1. Employee will, without further consideration, assign to Employer all of Employee's right, title and interest in each invention, discovery, idea or improvement made or conceived by Employee, either alone or with others, during the term of and related to his or her employment (collectively called "Invention"), whether or not patentable, and will, at all times during his or her employment and after its termination for any reason, assist Employer in every proper way, entirely at Employer's expense, to obtain, for its own benefit, patents or other forms of protection for each Invention in any and all countries.

2. Employee acknowledges that the following items used in Employer's business are confidential, unique and valuable and were developed by Employer at great cost and over a long period of time. Employee further acknowledges that disclosures of any of said item to anyone other than Employer's officer, agents or authorized employees will cause Employer irreparable injury:

- a. Customer lists, call lists and other confidential data;
- b. Memoranda, notes, records and other confidential technical data;
- c. Sketches, plans, drawings, manuscripts, notes, records and other confidential research and development data.

Employee will not disclose to anyone, other than Employer's officers, agents or authorized employees, unless otherwise directed in writing by Employer's board of directors, any of the above listed items or any of Employer's other confidential information or trade secrets, whether developed before or after the date of this Agreement. Upon termination of Employee's employment for any reason, Employee will at once return to Employer all of Employer's confidential material that is in Employee's possession or control.

3. During the period of his or her employment, Employee will not independently engage in the same or similar line of business as that carried on by employer, or directly or indirectly, serve, advise or be employed by any individual, firm or corporation engaged in the same or similar line of business as that carried on by Employer.

4. The provisions of this Agreement shall survive Employee's termination for any reason whatsoever.

5. Employer may enforce this Agreement by seeking either equitable relief or damages at law or both.

6. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Employer, Employer's affiliated companies, successors and assigns.

7. This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the state of Massachusetts.

8. This offer of employment does not reflect expectations for any specific period of time. Employment may be terminated at any time at the discretion of either party (i.e. employer or employee) with an appropriate period of notice.
