Sir:

Lott & Friedland, P.A., and Michael J. Keller, attorney of record for Applicant, David Martucci (hereinafter "Applicant") and Assignee, Cytorex Biosciences, Inc. (hereinafter "Assignee"), hereby file and give notice of their claim for an attorney's charging lien in the amount of $ 13,449.06, plus interest accruing at the highest legal rate until paid, as compensation for professional legal services, as well as expenses and disbursements incurred, in the preparation and prosecution of the above-captioned patent application on behalf of Applicants and/or Assignee. All parties interested in the above-captioned patent application are called upon to take notice of this Charging Lien, which is superior in dignity to any other lien subsequently filed and recorded, all pursuant to applicable Florida and Federal Statutes and decisional authorities.

In addition, Lott & Friedland, P.A., and Michael J. Keller hereby assert and give notice of exercising their right to a retaining lien on all files, documents, and other material created, generated, and/or published in connection with the above-captioned patent application, along with any other personalty held by said law firm for or on behalf of Applicants and/or Assignee, until such time as Applicants and/or Assignee pay Lott & Friedland, P.A. and Michael J. Keller, the sum of $ 13,449.06, plus accrued interest, said sum representing compensation for professional legal services rendered, as well as expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with the above-captioned patent application on behalf of Applicants and/or Assignee.
