Dear Sirs:

I, John E. Hoel, having a mailing address at Morgan and Finnegan, LLP, 1775 Eye St
NW Ste 400, Washington, DC 20006, do hereby depose and say:

That I am an attorney registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) and my registration number is 26,279;

That I am an attorney of record in the above-identified patent application serial number 10/648,471, filed August 27, 2003, assigned to Object Technology Licensing Corporation;

That Object Technology Licensing Corporation (OTLC) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Apple Inc.;

That the above-identified patent application serial number 10/648,471, is one of several patent-related matters that I have handled for Object Technology Licensing Corporation and for Apple Inc., under its former name "Apple Computer, Inc.";

That I received from Apple Inc. a notice that Apple Computer, Inc. had officially changed its corporate name on January 9, 2007 from its former name "Apple Computer, Inc." to its current name "Apple Inc.";

That accompanying that notice was a request from Apple Inc. to change the assignee name of U.S. pending and issued cases I was handling, but only for those cases that were at that time validly assigned to "Apple Computer, Inc.", changing the name to the new name "Apple Inc.";

That through my own error and without deceptive intent, I then prepared a document requesting the Assignment Branch of the USPTO to change the assignee name for the above-identified patent application serial number 10/648,471, from the name "Apple Computer, Inc.", to the name "Apple Inc.", the error being that the above-identified patent application serial number 10/648,471 was not a patent application assigned to Apple Computer, Inc.;

That I electronically filed the request document on June 4, 2007 as Document No. 500288973 in the Assignment Branch of the USPTO;

That I received a Notice of Recordation of Assignment Document No. 500288973A recorded at Reel/Frame 019376/0656, received from the Assignment Branch of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) indicating that the assignee name has been changed for the above-identified patent application serial number 10/648,471, from the name "Apple Computer, Inc.", to the name "Apple Inc.";

That the Notice is in error since the above-identified patent application serial number 10/648,471, is assigned to OTLC and was never assigned to either "Apple Computer, Inc." or to "Apple Inc.";

That the accompanying Request for Correction, the Declaration of Mr. Richard J. Lutton, and by my own declaration herein, request that the record in the Assignment Branch of the USPTO be corrected to show that the above-identified patent application serial number 10/648,471, filed August 27, 2003 is assigned to Object Technology Licensing Corporation and is not assigned to either "Apple Computer, Inc." or to "Apple Inc.".

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or Imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
