- and claiming an earliest priority of August 3, 2006.
- (d) any and all applications for patent and patents based on, corresponding to, or claiming the priority of the above-identified application for patent
- (i) that have been made or may in the future be made by the Assignor or Assignor's legal representatives, or that have been granted or may in the future be granted to the Assignor or Assignor's legal representatives,
 - (ii) whether in the United States of America or any other place anywhere in the world,
 - (iii) including without limitation any and all substitutions, divisions, continuations, continuations-in-part, and the like;
- (e) any and all rights of priority in the above-identified application for patent;
- (f) any and all rights in confidential information, confidential know-how, and/or trade secrets in the invention and/or the above-identified application for patent; and
- (g) any and all contractual rights, licenses, and choses in action of every kind that now are, or that may at any time hereafter be, due or owing to or owned by Assignor, based on any of the foregoing invention, application, and/or patent rights.

The Assignor hereby declares and represents to the Assignee that:

- (a) the Assignor has reviewed and understands the contents of the specification, including the claims, in the above-identified application for patent;
- (b) the Assignor believes himself or herself to be the original, first, and sole inventor (if only one name is listed for the above-identified application for patent) or the original, first, and joint inventor (if more than one name is listed for the above-identified application for patent) together with the other named inventor(s) of the subject matter which is described and/or claimed and for which patent protection is sought on the above-identified application for patent;
- (c) to the best of Assignor's knowledge and belief the above-identified application for patent fully and accurately describes the invention, including a full and accurate description of the best mode known for practicing the invention at the time the above-identified application for patent was filed;
- (d) the Assignor has disclosed to the Assignee all information known to the Assignor to be material to the patentability of any aspect of or claim in an application on the invention or the validity of any patent issuing on the invention, as materiality is defined in U.S. Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, § 1.56, namely information where there is a substantial likelihood that a reasonable examiner would consider the information important in deciding whether or not to allow the application to issue as a patent, including without limitation, information as to any public information, use (personal, experimental, or public), gift, offer for sale, or sale of the invention or relating to the invention before the earliest claimed priority in the above-identified application for patent; and

- (e) the Assignor has not assigned, granted, conveyed, or licensed and is under no obligation under contract or law to assign, grant, convey, or license any rights in the invention to any person or business entity (except the Assignee).

IN CONSIDERATION OF good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Assignor does hereby assign, grant, and convey to the Assignee his or her entire right, title, and interest in and to the Intellectual Property, to the full extent of the Assignor's interest therein.

The Assignor authorizes and requests the Commissioner of Patents to issue any and all Letters Patent of the United States resulting from any and all U.S. applications of the Intellectual Property to the Assignee, as the assignee of the Assignor's entire interest therein.

The Assignor authorizes the Assignee to make applications for and to receive Letters Patent on the invention of the Intellectual Property in any foreign country in its own name.

The Assignor covenants and agrees that without further consideration the Assignor will:

- (a) maintain the confidentiality of the status of any pending applications for patent;
- (b) maintain the confidentiality of the subject matter of the Intellectual Property except to the extent already published until the subject matter is published by or with the permission of the Assignee or otherwise becomes public through no fault of Assignor;
- (c) disclose to the Assignee any and all information of which the Assignor may become aware that may be material to inventorship, namely, who truly contributed to the conception of the invention as defined in the claims of any application for patent or patent on the invention; and
- (d) disclose to the Assignee any and all information of which the Assignor later becomes aware that may be material to the patentability of any aspect of or claim in an application on the invention or the validity of any patent issuing on the invention, as materiality is defined in U.S. Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, § 1.56, namely information where there is a substantial likelihood that a reasonable examiner would consider the information important in deciding whether or not to allow the application to issue as a patent, including without limitation, information as to any public information, use (personal, experimental, or public), gift, offer for sale, or sale of the invention or relating to the invention before the earliest claimed priority in the above-identified application for patent.

The Assignor covenants and agrees that, upon the request and at the expense of the Assignee, without further consideration the Assignor will:

- (a) execute or procure and deliver any further assurance of title to the Intellectual Property as the Assignee may reasonably deem necessary or desirable;
- (b) execute and deliver any truthful papers and testimony in any legal proceedings that the Assignee may reasonably deem necessary or desirable to perfect the Assignee's title to or enforce the Assignee's rights in the Intellectual Property; and
- (c) execute any continuations, divisions, reexaminations, reissues, renewals, extensions, or any other additional applications for patent directed to the subject matter of the Intellectual Property or any part or parts thereof and make all rightful oaths, and do all lawful acts requisite for procuring the same therein as the Assignee may reasonably deem necessary or desirable.
