Assignment of Patent Rights

For good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, between LI-COR, Inc., a corporation with an office at 4421 Superior Street, Lincoln, Nebraska 68504 ("Seller") hereby grants and assigns to Pacific Biosciences of California, Inc., a Delaware corporation, with an office at 1505 Adams Drive, Menlo Park, California, 94025 ("Purchaser") all of the Seller's right, title and interest in and to the patents and patent applications set forth in Exhibit A (the "Assigned Patents"), and the underlying inventions described in the patent and patent applications and any and all Letters Patent whether U.S. or foreign that are or may be granted therefrom including without limitation any extensions, continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions, reissues, reexaminations, and renewals thereof, or other equivalents thereof, and further, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Patents and any and all Letters Patent whether U.S. or foreign that are or may be granted therefrom, including any and all claims and rights to injunctive relief and damages for infringement (including past infringement) of any of the Assigned Patents and the sole right to sue and recover therefore under such Patents.

The Seller further assigns to and empowers Purchaser, its successors, assigns or nominees, all rights to make applications for patents or other forms of protection for said inventions, modifications, derivations and improvements thereon and to prosecute such applications as well as to claim and receive the benefit of the right of priority provided by the International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property, as amended, or by any convention which may henceforth be substituted for it, and the right to invoke and claim such right of priority without further written or oral authorization.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, THE SELLER has caused this Patent Assignment to be duly signed on its behalf.
