ASSIGNMENT

This Assignment is by SemiBio Technology, Inc. (the "Assignor"), a company established under the laws of the State of California. The Assignor is the sole owner, by assignment, of one or more certain inventions (the "Invention(s)") described in a United States Patent Application entitled "Methods and kits for detecting a target cell" which was filed on April 22, 2003 as Application No. U.S. 10/420,643 (the "Application").

SemiBio Holdings Limited, an exempted company incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability ("Assignee"), desires to acquire the entire right, title and interest in and to the Invention(s) and the Application, and in and to any patents (collectively, "Patents") that may be granted for the Invention(s) in the United States or in any foreign countries.

For valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which it acknowledges, Assignor hereby sells, assigns, and transfers to Assignee, its successors, legal representatives and assigns, the entire right, title and interest in and to: the Invention(s), the Application, and any Patents; any divisions, continuations, and continuations-in-part of the Application and any other application claiming priority rights from the Application; any reissues, reexaminations, or extensions of any and all Patents; the right to file foreign applications directly in the name of Assignee; and the right to claim priority rights deriving from the Application (collectively, the "Rights"). Assignor also agrees not to sign any writing or do any act conflicting with this assignment, and, without further compensation, sign all documents and do such additional acts necessary to aid Assignee, its successors, legal representatives and assigns to: perfect Assignee's enjoyment of the Rights; prepare and prosecute the Application or any other applications for Patents; conduct proceedings regarding the Rights, including any litigation or interference proceedings; or perfect or defend title to the Rights. Assignor requests the Commissioner of Patents or any other office of similar authority to issue any Patent that may be issued on the Invention(s) to Assignee.
