LICENSE TO UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

WHEREAS, Dr. Janet S. Butel, a citizen of the United States, with an address of 3031 Albans Avenue, Houston, Texas 77005; Teh-Hsiu Lee, a citizen of Taiwan, with an address of 1922 Wyndale #3, Houston, Texas 77030 and Stephen J. Elledge, a citizen of the United States, with an address of 2502 Wordsworth, Houston, Texas 77030, (hereinafter referred to as the "Inventors"), have made an invention entitled "Hepatitis B Virus Interacts with Cellular DNA Repair Processes," and on October 12, 1993, filed a Patent Application thereon in the United States, which application bears Serial No. - 08/233,932 (said patent application shall be referred to herein as the "Patent Application").

WHEREAS, certain research was conducted in part under National Institutes of Health grant CA 54557.

WHEREAS, the invention was made at Baylor College of Medicine in the course of research under the above-referenced grants;

WHEREAS, the United States Government is entitled to certain rights in and to said invention and Patent Application by reason of the terms of such support; and

WHEREAS, Baylor College of Medicine, hereinafter called the "Licensor," has acquired by assignment from the Inventors the entire right, title, and interest of the inventors to the invention:

NOW, THEREFORE:

- 1. The Licensor, in consideration of the premises and other good and valuable consideration, hereby grants and conveys to the United States Government a royalty-free, non-exclusive, and irrevocable license for governmental purposes, and on behalf of any foreign government pursuant to any existing or future treaty or agreement with the United States of America, under the aforesaid Patent Application, and any and all divisions or continuations, and in any and all patents or reissues which may be granted thereon during the full term or terms thereof. As used herein, "governmental purposes" means the right of the Government of the United States, including any agency thereof, to practice and have practiced (made or have made, used or have used, sold or have sold) in connection with programs funded in whole or in part by the Federal Government throughout the world by or on behalf of the Government of the United States.
- 2. The Licensor covenants and warrants that it has the right to grant the foregoing license, and that any assignment which it may make of the invention of the said Patent Application or patent thereon, shall expressly be made subject to this license.

PATENT REEL: 020877 FRAME: 0448 3. The Licensor agrees that the Government shall not be estopped at any time to contest the enforceability, validity, scope of, or title to, any patent or patent application herein licensed.
