(hereinafter, the "Invention"); and

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged:

- 1. ASSIGNMENT. Assignor hereby sells, assigns, transfers, and conveys unto Assignee, its successors and assigns, all of Assignor's right, title, and interest in and to the Invention, the patent application filed thereon, any continuation, division, continuation-in-part, reissue or reexamination applications and any patents, U.S. or foreign, that may issue therefrom, the same to be held and enjoyed by Assignee for its own use and benefit and for the use and benefit of its successors and assigns, to the full end of the term of any patent that may issue therefrom, as fully and entirely as same would have been held by Assignors had this assignment not been made.
- 2. RIGHTS INCLUDED. The transfer and assignment, as described above, also shall include the right to sue for past infringements (whether known or unknown) of the Invention, and any patents that may issue therefrom, and to hold for Assignee's own use all recoveries had in such suits, without need for accounting to Assignor. In any such litigation, Assignor shall provide reasonable cooperation, at Assignee's expense.
- 3. REPRESENTATIONS. Assignor represents and warrants that Assignors have the sole and exclusive ownership interest in and title to the Invention of the patent application; that Assignor has not granted to any third party any rights that would conflict, in any material way, with the rights granted herein to Assignee; that, to the knowledge of Assignor, the Invention is not being infringed by any third party; and that Assignor has the full right, power, and authority to make this assignment.
