SCHEDULE A

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares and preferred shares, all without par value.

- I. The common shares shall have attached thereto the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:
- (a) Voting. Each common share shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote at all meetings of the shareholders of the Company (except meetings at which only holders of another specified class of shares are entitled to vote pursuant to the provisions hereof or pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act (Quebec) (hereinafter referred to as the "Act").
 - (b) Dividends. The holders of the common shares shall be entitled to receive during each month, as and when declared by the board of directors, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the preferred shares, dividends payable in money, property or by the issue of fully paid shares of the share capital of the Company.
 - (c) Liquidation, etc. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of the Company among shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the preferred shares, the holders of the common shares shall be entitled to receive the remaining property of the Company.
- II. The preferred shares shall have attached thereto the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:
- (a) Non-Voting. Subject to the provisions of the Act or as otherwise expressly provided herein, the holders of the preferred shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of, nor to attend or vote at, meetings of the shareholders of the Company.
 - (b) Dividends. The holders of the preferred shares shall be entitled to receive during each year, as and when declared by the board of directors, but always in preference and priority to any payment of dividends on the common shares or any other shares ranking junior to the preferred shares, non-cumulative dividends at a fixed rate of eight percent (8%) per annum calculated on the Preferred Redemption Price (as hereinafter defined in paragraph II(b)) of each such share, payable in money, property or by the issue of fully paid shares of any class of the share capital of the Company. The holders of the preferred shares shall not be entitled to any dividend in excess of the dividend hereinbefore provided for.

- (c) Liquidation, etc. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of the Company among shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the preferred shares shall be entitled to receive for each preferred share, in preference and priority to any distribution of the property or assets of the Company to the holders of the common shares or to any other shares ranking junior to the preferred shares, an amount equal to the Preferred Redemption Price plus all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, but shall not be entitled to share any further in the distribution of the property or assets of the Company.
- (d) Redemption by Company. The Company may, in the manner hereinafter provided, redeem at any time all, or from time to time any part, of the outstanding preferred shares on payment for each preferred share to be redeemed of the Preferred Redemption Price plus all declared and unpaid dividends thereon (in paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) called the "Redemption Price").
- (e) Procedure on Redemption. Before redeeming any preferred shares, the Company shall mail or deliver to each person who, at the date of such mailing or delivery, shall be a registered holder of preferred shares to be redeemed, notice of the intention of the Company to redeem such shares held by such registered holder. Such notice shall be delivered to, or mailed by ordinary prepaid post addressed to, the last address of such holder as it appears on the records of the Company, or in the event of the address of any such holder not appearing on the records of the Company, then to the last address of such holder known to the Company, at least one (1) day before the date specified for redemption. Such notice shall set out the Redemption Price, the date on which the redemption is to take place and, if part only of the preferred shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption, the Company shall pay or cause to be paid the Redemption Price to the registered holders of the preferred shares to be redeemed upon presentation and surrender of the certificates for the preferred shares so called for redemption at the head office of the Company or at such other place or places as may be specified in such notice, and the certificates for such preferred shares shall thereupon be cancelled, and the preferred shares represented thereby shall thereupon be redeemed. From and after the date specified for redemption in such notice, the holders of the preferred shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends in respect of such shares and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of the holders thereof, except the right to receive the Redemption Price, unless payment of the Redemption Price shall not be made by the Company in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of the holders of such shares shall remain unaffected. On or before the date specified for redemption, the Company remain unaffected. On or before the date specified for redemption, the Company shall have the right to deposit the Redemption Price of the preferred shares called for redemption in a special account with any chartered bank or trust company in Canada named in the notice of redemption, to be paid, without interest, to or to the order of the respective holders of such preferred shares called for redemption, upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing the same and, upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption, whichever is later, the preferred shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made, shall be deemed to be redeemed and the rights of the respective holders thereof, after such deposit or after such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving, out of the moneys so deposited, without interest, the Redemption Price applicable to their respective preferred shares against presentation and surrender of the certificates representing such preferred shares. If less than all the preferred shares are to be redeemed, the shares to be redeemed shall be redeemed pro rata, disregarding fractions, unless the holders of the preferred shares unanimously agree to the adoption of another method of selection of the preferred shares to be redeemed. If less than all the preferred shares represented by any certificate be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued.

- (f) Redemption by Holder. A holder of preferred shares shall be entitled to require the Company to redeem at any time all or from time to time any part of the preferred shares registered in the name of such holder by tendering to the Company at its head office the share certificate(s) representing the preferred shares which the registered holder desires to have the Company redeem, together with a request in writing specifying (i) the number of preferred shares which the registered holder desires to have redeemed by the Company and (ii) the business day (in this paragraph referred to as the "Redemption Date") on which the holder desires to have the Company redeem such preferred shares, which Redemption Date shall not be less than five (5) days after the day on which the request in writing is received by the Company. Upon receipt of the share certificate(s) representing the preferred shares which the registered holder desires to have the Company redeem together with such a request, the Company shall on or, at its option, before the Redemption Date redeem such preferred shares by paying to the registered holder thereof, for each share to be redeemed, an amount equal to the Redemption Price in respect thereof. Such payment shall be made by cheque payable at any branch of the Company's bankers for the time being in Canada. The said preferred shares shall be deemed to be redeemed on the date of payment of the Redemption Price and, from and after such date, such preferred shares shall cease to be entitled to dividends and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of the holders of the preferred shares in respect thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall only be obliged to redeem preferred shares so tendered for redemption to the extent that such redemption would not be contrary to any applicable law, and if such redemption of any such preferred shares would be contrary to any applicable law, the Company shall only be obliged to redeem such preferred shares to the extent that the moneys applied thereto shall be such amount (rounded to the next lower multiple of one hundred dollars ($100.00)) as would not be contrary to such law, in which case the Company shall pay to each holder his pro rata share of the purchase moneys available. If less than all of the preferred shares represented by any certificate be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued.

(g) Purchase for Cancellation. The Company may purchase for cancellation at any time all, or from time to time any part, of the preferred shares outstanding, by private contract at any price, with the unanimous consent of the holders of the preferred shares then outstanding, or by invitation for tenders addressed to all the holders of the preferred shares at the lowest price at which, in the opinion of the directors, such shares are obtainable but not exceeding the Redemption Price thereof. If less than all the preferred shares represented by any certificate be purchased for cancellation, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued.

(h) Preferred Redemption Price. For the purposes of the foregoing paragraphs II(b), (c) and (d), the "Preferred Redemption Price" of each preferred share shall be an amount equal to (i) the monetary consideration received by the Company upon the issuance of such share (denominated in the currency in which such consideration was paid to the Company), if such share has been issued for money; or (ii) the fair market value of the consideration received by the Company (including, without limitation, shares of another class of the Company) upon the issuance of such share, if such share has been issued for a consideration other than money; less (iii) all amounts paid in respect of such share on account of reductions in issued and paid-up capital. Subject to the provisions of the following sub-paragraph, such fair market value is to be determined by the directors on the basis of generally accepted accounting and valuation principles.

The fair market value determined as hereinabove provided for shall be subject to revision in accordance with any binding agreement with, or decision by, the appropriate taxation authorities, or any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. In the event that any such agreement, decision or judgment shall result in a final determination under the provisions of the appropriate taxation legislation and the amount thereby determined is an amount other than the amount for which such share was originally issued as determined by the directors in accordance with the preceding sub-paragraph, then if, and only if, such determination is relevant in determining the tax liability of the vendor in the year of the issuance of the shares, such finally determined amount for the purpose of the appropriate taxation legislation shall then be deemed to be the fair market value of the consideration received by the Company upon the issuance of such preferred share. Such adjustment to the Preferred Redemption Price shall reflect any assessment by the Minister of National Revenue or other taxing authority to which no appeal is taken, or any agreement reached by the Company or any holder of a preferred share and a such taxing authority in settlement of a dispute regarding such assessment or proposed assessment or any decision by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction regarding the fair market value of the preferred shares or the consideration received by the Company upon the issuance of such preferred shares to which no appeal may be taken or the period during which an appeal may be taken has expired.

In the event that, subsequent to any redemption of preferred shares, the Preferred Redemption Price of each preferred share is adjusted pursuant to a revision of fair market value as aforementioned, either the Company shall pay out to the former holders of such redeemed preferred shares or the said former holders of the redeemed preferred shares will reimburse the Company, as the case may be, the difference between the Preferred Redemption Price of the said preferred shares as adjusted and the amount paid by the Company upon redemption within sixty (60) days from the date of adjustment of the Preferred Redemption Price.

- (i) Issued and Paid-Up Capital. In the event that only part of the amount of the consideration received by the Company for any preferred share issued by the Company is added to the issued and paid-up capital account of the preferred shares, such preferred share shall be deemed to have been issued for the full amount of the consideration received, for all purposes of these articles (except only with respect to the issued and paid-up share capital of such preferred shares) including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, dividend rights, redemption rights and rights upon liquidation and dissolution.
- (j) No Change. No change to any of the provisions of paragraphs II(a) to II(i) or of this paragraph II(j) shall have any force or effect until a by-law has been approved by a majority or not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast by the holders of the preferred shares, voting separately as a class at a meeting of such holders specially called for that purpose, or by a resolution in writing signed by all the holders of the preferred shares, in addition to any other approval required by the Act.
