RE: Assignment of FMC BioPolymer AS Patent Rights

Hello Atle Mundheim Ylikangas,

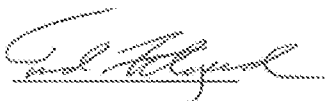

Sorbwater Technology AS, registered in Norway under reg. no 990 926 581, filed two Norwegian patent applications no. 20071122 and 20061642 filed on 27 February 2007 and 11 April 2006 respectively titled, "Fremgangsmåte til fjerning av hydrokarboner og partikulært materiale fra en væskestrøm" and "Fremgangsmåte til fjerning av av løste og/eller uoppløste organiske og/eller uorganiske forurensinger fra en væskestrøm"

Additional subject matter has been added to the aforementioned patent applications, and it is desired to file this modified patent application claiming the benefit of the aforementioned patent applications in the PCT, as well as various other countries (the "Patent Application") and one FMC employee, Christian Klein Larsen, shall be included in the list of co inventors.

Whereas all inventions related to the above applications made by or involving FMC employee Christian Klein Larsen by contract belong to FMC, NOW, THEREFORE, be it known that for valuable consideration, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, FMC does hereby unconditionally assign and transfer unto the said Sorbwater Technology AS, its successors and assigns, the full and exclusive ownership, right, title and interest in and to the aforesaid Patent Application and any and all Letters Patent and reissues thereof which may be granted upon said Patent Application and upon any and all additional or divisional applications for patents claiming the benefit of said Patent Application, in and for all countries, including the full right to claim for any such Patent Application the benefits, including priority rights, of any provisional application, international convention, arrangement, or treaty, as fully and entirely as FMC could have done if the Patent Application had been filed in FMC's name; to the full ends of the terms for which all said Letters Patent and reissues thereof may be granted.

FMC hereby authorizes and requests any Official of any country whose duty it is to issue patents on the aforesaid Patent Application to issue all Letters Patent for said Patent Application to said Sorbwater Technology AS, as sole assignee.
