hereinafter referred to as: "seller".

The persons appearing, acting in the above capacity, declared as follows:

A. PUBLIC SALE

Pursuant to the provisions of article 176 of the Bankruptcy Act, the person appearing mentioned under 2, acting in the above capacity, has requested the private company with limited liability under Dutch law: Troostwijk Veilingen B.V., registered in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, hereinafter also referred to as: "Troostwijk", to effect the public sale, hereinafter referred to as: "the sale", of the assets described below.

B. AUCTION CONDITIONS

Troostwijk established the conditions, hereinafter referred to as: "the auction conditions", on which the sale of the assets described below would take place.

Pursuant to the auction conditions, the contract of sale between the buyer and the seller becomes effective through the assignment, as referred to in article 5.4. of the general auction terms and conditions.

C. DESCRIPTION OF ASSETS

The assets referred to in A. above are as follows:

- the patents and patent applications as described in the lists provided by the seller and Nederlandsch Octrooibureau, European Patent and Trademark Attorneys, which lists will be attached to this deed as appendix 1;
- the European word mark MucoMilk (registration number 003310431);
- the European logo MucoVax (registration number 001574979);
- the patent pending, publication date the eighteenth day of June two thousand nine, PCT WO 2009/0745439 A1;
- the research samples stored in a freezer of minus eighty degrees Celsius, as described in the list supplied by the seller, which list will be attached to this deed as appendix 2, as well as the research results, which are known to the parties;
- the marks registered by the seller with the Office for Harmonization in the Internal Market (Trade Marks and Designs) (OHIM), the MucoVax documents, including know-how, copyrights and lab journals, extracts of which will be attached to this deed as appendix 3, hereinafter referred to both jointly and individually as: "the assets".

The assets were offered for auction as one (1) lot. Neither the receiver nor Troostwijk investigated the seller's authorisation regarding the assets in any further detail. The seller provides the buyer with no guarantee whatsoever in that regard. If proof of title is missing, the seller is not required to provide this. The absence of proof of title does not entitle the buyer to any rights to compensation for damages. The civil law notary was explicitly not requested to perform a title search. No guarantees or rights can be derived on the basis of this deed or the auction conditions with regard to the completeness, quality, quantity or duration of the assets listed in the appendices. Any shortcomings are deemed to have been discounted in the sale price.

D. AUCTION

On the twenty-second day of December two thousand nine, Troostwijk offered the assets for sale under the supervision of F.J. Oranje, civil law notary in The Hague, the Netherlands, by means of an online auction as described in the auction terms and conditions, whereby the buyer made the highest statistically assignable bid, namely a sum of three hundred thousand euro (€ 300,000.00).

E. ORGANISATION OF THE AUCTION

Troostwijk did not avail itself of the power assigned to it pursuant to article 4 of the auction terms and conditions not to acknowledge the bid or to exclude the buyer from the auction as a bidder.

F. ALLOCATION

The person appearing mentioned under 2, acting in the above capacity, declared that on the twenty-ninth day of December two thousand nine, fifteen hour and fifty-eight minutes (15:58), the seller, observing the provisions of article 5.4. and 5.5. of the general auction terms and conditions, has accepted the buyer's bid by assignment, as shown by an e-mail to be attached to this deed. The contract of sale between the seller and the buyer took effect with this assignment.

G. DELIVERY

1. For the execution of the contract of sale, the seller hereby declares that it transfers the ownership of the assets and delivers the assets to the buyer, who hereby declares its acceptance of the ownership of the assets.
2. As of the twenty-third day of December two thousand nine, the assets are at the risk and expense of the seller.
3. To the extent that any further action or notification is necessary or required in relation to the delivery of the assets, the seller hereby irrevocably authorises the buyer to take or provide for the necessary or required action and/or notification.
4. The seller has handed the original proof of registration concerning the intellectual property rights to the buyer. The buyer will itself provide for the record of the transfer in the registers for that purpose and will bear all costs thereof.
5. The assets are delivered in the condition in which they are found, with no requirement for the seller to provide any guarantee of any kind.

H. PAYMENT OF SALE PRICE

In compliance with the auction terms and conditions, the buyer has paid the full sale price through a transfer to an account of Stichting Beheer Gelden Troostwijk on the twentieth day of January two thousand ten.

I. VAT

After receiving tax advice, the parties assume that no VAT is payable on the transfer of the assets. If it is established that the tax authority is of the final opinion that VAT is due on this transfer, the buyer shall pay the VAT due on the sale price to the seller at the seller's earliest request.

J. THIRD PARTY RIGHTS

1. The assets shall be sold with the associated costs and restrictions. The buyer is aware that the assets may be subject to third party rights (for instance reservations of ownership and rights of pledge); the buyer hereby explicitly accepts any costs and restrictions associated with the assets, within the meaning of article 7:15 paragraph 1 of the Dutch Civil Code.
2. The buyer undertakes to the receiver to respect third party rights in relation to the assets. This clause is deemed to be a third-party clause in relation to the third parties in question.
3. The buyer hereby indemnifies the receiver against third party claims in relation to the assets. The receiver is not liable to the buyer or its legal successors for any form of compensation for damages in relation to third-party rights to the assets, nor is the receiver liable for legal aid, within the meaning of article 7:16 of the Dutch Civil Code.

K. OTHER PROVISIONS

1. The declaration of consent of the competent bankruptcy judge required pursuant to the Bankruptcy Act, with the allocation to the buyer, is shown by an e mail dated the twenty-third day of December two thousand nine, to be attached to this deed.
2. The buyer acknowledges that the delivery has taken place, to its full satisfaction.
3. The parties may not claim any dissolution of the contract of sale or of this delivery.
4. Further agreements are valid only if contracted in writing.
5. If one or more provisions of this agreement prove to be invalid or unenforceable, they are hereby substituted in advance by provisions for which this does not apply and that provide for the same as the invalid or unenforceable provision as far as possible. To the extent necessary, the parties shall conduct further talks on the precise working of these substitute provisions.
6. The costs of this deed (and the translation of this deed into English) and the delivery shall be borne by the buyer.

L. AUTHORISATION

If further formalities are required in relation to the delivery of the sold assets, the parties undertake to co-operate in the completion of these in full. To that end, the seller hereby irrevocably authorizes the buyer to take all action necessary or required on the seller's behalf, including in the event of a conflict of interest.

M. APPLICABLE LAW

1. This agreement is governed by Dutch law only.
2. All disputes arising in relation to this agreement between the parties shall, in the first instance, be adjudicated by the competent court in The Hague, the Netherlands.

N. POWER OF ATTORNEY

The authorisation of the person appearing mentioned under 1, is shown by two (2) powers of attorney, which will be attached to this deed.

O. ELECTION OF DOMICILE

With regard to this deed, the parties elect domicile at the offices of the civil law notary, the custodian of this deed.
