Court hears arguments on the tentative ruling. Tentative ruling posted on the internet becomes the Court's order as follows: Defendant's motion to set aside default and clerk's judgment:

This motion is timely and is amply supported by a declaration of attorney's fault. The motion is therefore granted. Plaintiff's request for an undertaking as a condition for the Court's granting of the motion is not authorized by CCP 473(b) and is therefore denied. Defendant is ordered to file and serve the original proposed Answer within 5 days. Defendant to prepare order.
