Filing Date: October 2, 2009

Attorney Docket No: GCLAR.00001

NOTICE OF OWNERSHIP DISPUTE

This Notice is being recorded in connection with the above-referenced patent application to give notice to the public and interested parties that the Administrator of the Estate of Jeffrey Marcus Clark, one of the named inventors in the above-referenced application, disputes Creation One Formulators LLC's claim of ownership of Clark's entire right, title, and interest in said application.

On April 8, 2010, Jessica L. Lewis of Fish & Richardson recorded an assignment dated May 23, 2007 purporting to convey to Creation One Formulators, LLC the late Clark's entire right, title and interest in Application No. 60/912,016 entitled VECTOR SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR MAKING AND USE THEREOF, a different application from the above-referenced application. (See REEL/FRAME 024206/0247.)

The assignment for a prior patent application was recorded with the USPTO when the Estate declined repeated demands by representatives of Creation One Formulators to execute an assignment of the above-referenced application without compensation. The Administrator of the Estate disputes that Clark assigned the application to Creation One Formulators, LLC and disputes that he had an obligation under the law to so assign the application.
