ASSIGNMENT OF PATENT APPLICATION

WHEREAS, I, David E. Douglas of Oak Park, Michigan (hereafter referred to as the Assignor) have invented certain new and useful inventions and/or improvements as disclosed in the following documents:
- U.S. Provisional Patent Application number 60/850,030 filed October 6, 2006 entitled “Multiple Positioned Point Sources to Achieve Uniform or Graded Illumination”; and
- U.S. Non-Provisional Patent Application number 11/973,430, filed on October 9, 2007, entitled “Multiple Positioned Light Source to Achieve Uniform or Graded Illumination.”

AND WHEREAS Q Technology, Inc., a Michigan Corporation, having a place of business at 189 Contractors Avenue, Livermore, California, (hereafter, together with any successors, legal representatives, and assigns, referred to as the Assignee), is desirous of acquiring the entire right, title and interest in and to said inventions and improvements.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable considerations the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, I have sold, assigned, and transferred, and do hereby sell, assign, and transfer, to the Assignee the full, exclusive, and entire right, title, and interest in and to the above-identified patent applications and any and all inventions and improvements disclosed therein, all corresponding domestic and foreign patent applications, continuations, continuation-in-parts, substitutions, divisionals, reissues, extensions, all Letters Patent or similar legal protection issuing thereon or there from, and all rights and benefits under any applicable international treaties or conventions, and including, but not limited to, related intellectual property rights such as utility-model registrations, inventor’s certificates, and the like, heretofore or hereafter filed for said inventions and improvements. This sale, assignment, and transfer being effective in the United States of America and throughout the world and further including, but not limited to, the right to file foreign applications directly in the name of the Assignee and to claim priority rights deriving from said United States applications to which said foreign applications are entitled by virtue of international convention, treaty, or otherwise. Said inventions, improvements, applications and all Letters Patent issued thereon and there from to be held and enjoyed by the Assignee as fully and entirely as the same would have been held and enjoyed by Assignor had this sale, assignment, and transfer not been made together with all rights of actions for infringement thereof including the right to recover damages for said infringement.

I HEREBY authorize and request the Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and to any and all foreign equivalent thereof to issue and grant the Letters Patent or similar legal protection to the Assignee; the issuance and the grant including the entire right, title, and interest in and to the same, for Assignee’s sole use and behoof to the full end of the term for which said Letters Patents may be granted, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by me had this assignment and sale not been made.

AND I HEREBY covenant that I have full right to convey the entire interest herein assigned, and that I have not and shall not execute any writing or perform any act whatsoever conflicting with this Assignment. I, my executors or administrators, will at any time upon request, without additional consideration, but at the expense of the Assignee execute such additional writings and perform such additional acts as the Assignee may deem desirable to perfect its enjoyment of this sale, assignment, and transfer, and render all assistance in making applications for and obtaining, maintaining, and enforcing the Letters Patent or similar legal protection on said inventions and improvements in any and all countries or jurisdictions.

ASSIGNMENT OF PATENT APPLICATION

WHEREAS, I, Samuel S. Lee of Pleasanton, California (hereafter referred to as the Assignor) have invented certain new and useful inventions and/or improvements as disclosed in the following documents:

- U.S. Provisional Patent Application number 60/850,030 filed October 6, 2006 entitled “Multiple Positioned Point Sources to Achieve Uniform or Graded Illumination”; and
- U.S. Non-Provisional Patent Application number 11/973,430, filed on October 9, 2007, entitled “Multiple Positioned Light Source to Achieve Uniform or Graded Illumination.”

AND WHEREAS Q Technology, Inc., a Michigan Corporation, having a place of business at 189 Contractors Avenue, Livermore, California, (hereafter, together with any successors, legal representatives, and assigns, referred to as the Assignee), is desirous of acquiring the entire right, title and interest in and to said inventions and improvements.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable considerations the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, I have sold, assigned, and transferred, and do hereby sell, assign, and transfer, to the Assignee the full, exclusive, and entire right, title, and interest in and to the above-identified patent applications and any and all inventions and improvements disclosed therein, all corresponding domestic and foreign patent applications, continuations, continuation-in-parts, substitutions, divisionals, reissues, extensions, all Letters Patent or similar legal protection issuing thereon or therefrom, and all rights and benefits under any applicable international treaties or conventions, and including, but not limited to, related intellectual property rights such as utility-model registrations, inventor’s certificates, and the like, heretofore or hereafter filed for said inventions and improvements. This sale, assignment, and transfer being effective in the United States of America and throughout the world and further including, but not limited to, the right to file foreign applications directly in the name of the Assignee and to claim priority rights deriving from said United States applications to which said foreign applications are entitled by virtue of international convention, treaty, or otherwise. Said inventions, improvements, applications and all Letters Patent issued thereon and there from to be held and enjoyed by the Assignee as fully and entirely as the same would have been held and enjoyed by Assignor had this sale, assignment, and transfer not been made together with all rights of actions for infringement thereof including the right to recover damages for said infringement.

I HEREBY authorize and request the Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and to any and all foreign equivalent thereof to issue and grant the Letters Patent or similar legal protection to the Assignee; the issuance and the grant including the entire right, title, and interest in and to the same, for Assignee’s sole use and behoof to the full end of the term for which said Letters Patents may be granted, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by me had this assignment and sale not been made.

AND I HEREBY covenant that I have full right to convey the entire interest herein assigned, and that I have not and shall not execute any writing or perform any act whatsoever conflicting with this Assignment. I, my executors or administrators, will at any time upon request, without additional consideration, but at the expense of the Assignee execute such additional writings and perform such additional acts as the Assignee may deem desirable to perfect its enjoyment of this sale, assignment, and transfer, and render all assistance in making applications for and obtaining, maintaining, and enforcing the Letters Patent or similar legal protection on said inventions and improvements in any and all countries or jurisdictions.

ASSIGNMENT OF PATENT APPLICATION

WHEREAS, I, Thomas E. Stack of Oxford, Michigan (hereafter referred to as the Assignor) have invented certain new and useful inventions and/or improvements as disclosed in the following documents:
- U.S. Provisional Patent Application number 60/850,030 filed October 6, 2006 entitled “Multiple Positioned Point Sources to Achieve Uniform or Graded Illumination”; and
- U.S. Non-Provisional Patent Application number 11/973,430, filed on October 9, 2007, entitled “Multiple Positioned Light Source to Achieve Uniform or Graded Illumination.”

AND WHEREAS Q Technology, Inc., a Michigan Corporation, having a place of business at 189 Contractors Avenue, Livermore, California, (hereafter, together with any successors, legal representatives, and assigns, referred to as the Assignee), is desirous of acquiring the entire right, title and interest in and to said inventions and improvements.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable considerations the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, I have sold, assigned, and transferred, and do hereby sell, assign, and transfer, to the Assignee the full, exclusive, and entire right, title, and interest in and to the above-identified patent applications and any and all inventions and improvements disclosed therein, all corresponding domestic and foreign patent applications, continuations, continuation-in-parts, substitutions, divisionals, reissues, extensions, all Letters Patent or similar legal protection issuing thereon or there from, and all rights and benefits under any applicable international treaties or conventions, and including, but not limited to, related intellectual property rights such as utility-model registrations, inventor’s certificates, and the like, heretofore or hereafter filed for said inventions and improvements. This sale, assignment, and transfer being effective in the United States of America and throughout the world and further including, but not limited to, the right to file foreign applications directly in the name of the Assignee and to claim priority rights deriving from said United States applications to which said foreign applications are entitled by virtue of international convention, treaty, or otherwise. Said inventions, improvements, applications and all Letters Patent issued thereon and there from to be held and enjoyed by the Assignee as fully and entirely as the same would have been held and enjoyed by Assignor had this sale, assignment, and transfer not been made together with all rights of actions for infringement thereof including the right to recover damages for said infringement.

I HEREBY authorize and request the Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and to any and all foreign equivalent thereof to issue and grant the Letters Patent or similar legal protection to the Assignee; the issuance and the grant including the entire right, title, and interest in and to the same, for Assignee’s sole use and behoof to the full end of the term for which said Letters Patents may be granted, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by me had this assignment and sale not been made.

AND I HEREBY covenant that I have full right to convey the entire interest herein assigned, and that I have not and shall not execute any writing or perform any act whatsoever conflicting with this Assignment. I, my executors or administrators, will at any time upon request, without additional consideration, but at the expense of the Assignee execute such additional writings and perform such additional acts as the Assignee may deem desirable to perfect its enjoyment of this sale, assignment, and transfer, and render all assistance in making applications for and obtaining, maintaining, and enforcing the Letters Patent or similar legal protection on said inventions and improvement in any and all countries or jurisdictions.
