NUNC PRO TUNC ASSIGNMENT

WHEREAS, William L. Walburn, hereinafter called the "Assignor", has made the invention described in the United States patent application entitled FACE PLATE ALIGNMENT SYSTEM, for a full description of which reference is here made to an application for Letters Patent of the United States filed on May 8, 2008 and assigned Application Serial No. 12/117,506;

WHEREAS, on May 7, 2008, Assignor mistakenly signed an assignment of said application to Rev-A-Shelf, a limited liability company of Kentucky, having a principal place of business at 3409 Plantside Drive, Jeffersontown, Kentucky 40299, which assignment was recorded by the Assignment Division of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office at Reel/Frame No. 020924/0559, which company does in fact not exist, and which assignment is therefore ineffective; and

WHEREAS, Assignor intended to assign said application to Rev-A-Shelf Company, LLC, a limited liability company of Kentucky, having a principal place of business at 2409 Plantside Drive, Jeffersontown, Kentucky 40299, hereinafter called "Assignee";

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00), and other valuable and legally sufficient consideration, the receipt of which by the Assignor from the Assignee is hereby acknowledged, the Assignor has sold, assigned and transferred, and by these presents does sell, assign and transfer to the Assignee, the entire right, title and interest for the United States in and to the invention and the patent application identified above, and any patents that may issue for said invention in the United States; together with the entire right, title and interest in and to said invention and all patent applications and patents therefor in all countries foreign to the United States, including the full right to claim for any such application all benefits and priority rights under any applicable convention; together with the entire right, title and interest in and to all continuations, divisions, renewals and extensions of any of the patent applications and patents defined above; together with the right to recover all damages, including, but not limited to, a reasonable royalty, by reason of past, present, or future infringement or any other violation of patent or patent application rights; to have and to hold for the sole and exclusive use and benefit of the Assignee, its successors and assigns, to the full end of the term or terms for all such patents.

Assignor agrees to execute all papers necessary in connection with any interference which may be declared or litigation concerning the application or continuation, division, reissue or reexamination thereof, and to cooperate with the Assignee in every way possible in obtaining evidence and going forward with such interference or litigation.

Assignor agrees to execute all papers and documents and perform any act which may be necessary in connection with claims or provisions of the International Convention for Protection of Industrial Property or similar agreements.

Assignor agrees to sign and execute any and all other papers necessary or desirable for the procurement of Letters Patent on said invention in this and all foreign countries for the use of Assignee.

Assignor agrees to do all other acts which, in the opinion of Assignee, may be necessary or desirable to secure the grant of Letters Patent to Assignee or its nominees, in the United States and in all other countries where Assignee may desire to have such inventions, or any of them, patented, with specifications and claims in such form as shall be approved by Assignee and to vest and confirm in Assignee or its nominees the full and complete legal and equitable title to all such Letters Patent.

Assignor hereby authorizes and requests the Commissioner of Patents to issue any and all Letters Patent of the United States resulting from said application or any divisions or continuing or reissue applications thereof, and any reexamination of any of such applications, to the said Assignee, as Assignee of the entire interest, and hereby covenants that the undersigned has full right to convey the interest herein assigned, and that the undersigned has not executed, and will not execute, any agreement to conflict herewith.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the Assignor has executed this agreement.
