PATENT
REEL: 026883 FRAME: 0679

AFFIDAVIT OF CHARLES K. STEFANIDAKIS

I, Charles K. Stefanidakis, do hereby depose and state as follows:

1. I am the President, CFO, Treasurer and Secretary and also serve as Director on the Board of Directors of DNS Enterprise, Inc. Up until August 10, 2011, I was the Secretary and Treasurer and also served as Manager of DNSstuff, LLC. I make this affidavit on my own personal knowledge.

2. On July 19, 2011, US Patent No. 7,984,186 (the '186 Patent) issued in the name of DNSstuff, LLC.

3. The '186 Patent includes two inventors, R. Scott Perry ("Perry") and Paul D. Parisi ("Parisi"), who assigned their rights to Declude, Inc. by way of assignment (the "Perry/Paris Assignment") recorded at US Patent & Trademark Office ("USPTO") Reel/Frame 022654/0021, which was subsequently assigned to DNSstuff, LLC by way of assignment recorded at USPTO Reel/Frame 021723/0675 (the "DNSstuff, LLC Assignment").

4. On June 29, 2010, US Patent No. 7,747,780 (the '780 Patent) issued as a continuation-in-part to the '186 Patent in the name of DNSstuff, Inc., which was a typographical error for DNSstuff, LLC. The name of DNSstuff, Inc. was used in error as there was not then nor has there been since a corporation existing under this name. The '780 Patent should have issued in the name of DNSstuff, LLC.

5. The '780 Patent included three inventors, Perry, Parisi and John J. Donovan ("Donovan").

6. Perry and Parisi assigned their rights to the '780 Patent to Declude, Inc. by way of the Perry/Parisi Assignment. The Perry/Paris Assignment was recorded against the '780 Patent at USPTO Reel/Frame 26874/0170

7. On May 11, 2009, Donovan assigned his rights to the '780 Patent to DNSstuff, Inc. by way of assignment recorded at USPTO Reel/Frame 26872/0465 (the "Donovan Assignment"). Again, the Donovan Assignment contained the same typographical error as was contained in the '780 Patent, that is, DNSstuff, Inc. was mistakenly used instead of DNSstuff, LLC.

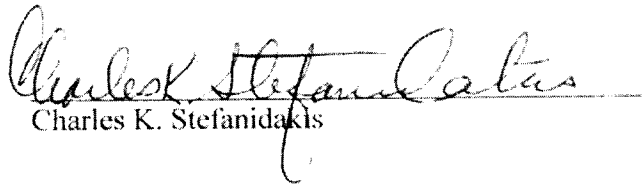

8. On May 13, 2009, an erroneous recordation against the '780 Patent was made at USPTO Reel/Frame 022674/0841 indicating an assignment from Declude, Inc. to DNSstuff, Inc. A review of that recordation reveals no such assignment, but rather a copy of the Donovan Assignment, noted in Paragraph 7 above.

9. I hereby state that DNSstuff, Inc. does not and has not existed in any form and any use of it in the documents noted above represents a typographical error which should have properly appeared as DNSstuff, LLC an entity formed on August 29, 2006.

11. I hereby state that it was the intent of all parties in the documents noted above to use the proper legal entity DNSstuff, LLC, and not the non-existent legal entity – DNSstuff, Inc.

Signed under the pains and penalties of perjury this 9th day of September, 2011.
