ASSIGNMENT

Solulink, Inc. and David Schwartz (hereinafter referred to as "Assignors"), a California corporation having its principal place of business at 9853 Pacific Heights Boulevard, Suite H, San Diego, CA 92121, for other valuable and sufficient consideration, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, confirms its agreement to hereby sell, assign and convey, unto The University of Chicago (hereinafter referred to as "Assignee"), its successors and assigns, its entire right, title and interest -

(1) in and to an invention entitled METHODS AND COMPOSITIONS FOR DIRECT DETECTION OF DNA DAMAGE for which it executed a United States Patent Application on September 8, 2009, application number 12/555,668 (Atty. Docket No. 012833-0013-999), which claims the benefit of priority of United States Provisional Patent Application Serial No. 60/094,521 filed September 5, 2008;

(2) in and to said United States patent application, in and to all other patent applications (including divisional, continuation, continuation-in-part, §111(b) provisional, §111(a), and reissue applications) based upon said invention, and in and to the patent or patents to be granted thereon, including reissues thereof, if any, to the full end of the term or terms for which said patent or patents may be granted;

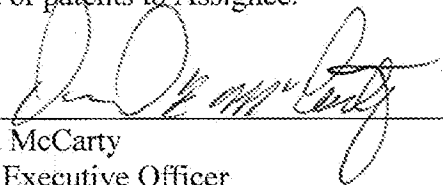

(3) in and to all patent applications on said invention previously, now or hereafter filed in countries foreign to the United States of America, and in and to any and all patents granted on said applications to the full end of the terms for which said patents may be granted; and

(4) under the International Convention in respect to the United States patent application and agree that any patent applications of any foreign countries which may be filed shall be filed in the name of its Assignee with a claim to priority based on said United States application.

And Assignors hereby agree that it will, upon request of Assignee, its successors or assigns, and without further consideration, execute any and all papers that may be necessary, or deemed by Assignee, its successors or assigns, to be necessary, to a complete fulfillment of the intent and purposes of this Assignment, it being understood that any expense incident to the execution of such papers shall be paid by Assignee, its successors and assigns, and not by Assignors.

And the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks of the United States is hereby authorized and requested to issue said United States patent or patents to Assignee.
