Re: Seaward International, Inc. and ProMar, LLC

Dear Mr. Fox:

This letter will serve as confirmation that in accordance with that certain Termination Agreement dated November 22, 2002 (the "Termination Agreement"), Seaward International, Inc. and ProMar, LLC (collectively, the "Borrower") have repaid fully the total indebtedness owed by the Borrower to The CIT Group/Business Credit, Inc. (the "Old Lender") under the Old Lender Financing Agreements (as defined in the Termination Agreement).

As of the date of this letter, the Old Lender acknowledges receiving the Payoff Amount called for under the Termination Agreement from the Borrower and further acknowledges and agrees to the following: (a) the Old Lender Financing Agreements are deemed terminated and all indebtedness and other obligations owing to the Old Lender thereunder are deemed paid and satisfied in full; and (b) the Old Lender shall (i) mark all notes and other evidence of indebtedness "paid" and promptly return them to the Borrower, (ii) release all liens and security interests in any of the Borrower's property or assets which the Borrower has granted to the Old Lender, (iii) authorize the Borrower or its counsel, Odin, Feldman & Pittleman, P.C., to file all UCC termination statements that are necessary or advisable to reflect the termination of the Old Lender Financing Agreements, (iv) will execute mortgage satisfactions and other agreements or take such other action as the Borrower may reasonably request in connection with the Old Lender's release of its liens and security interests in any of the Borrower's property or assets, including, without limitation, the transfer and reassignment to the Borrower of the Old Lender's lien upon certain trademarks and patents of the Borrower, and (v) take such other action as the Borrower may reasonably request in connection with the termination of the Old Lender Financing Agreements and the satisfaction of the indebtedness.

This letter is not intended to modify or to change the Termination Agreement in any way, but rather is intended to serve as follows: (i) confirmation of the Borrower's payment, and the Old Lender's receipt, of the Payoff Amount; and (ii) authorization by the Old Lender to the Borrower and to the Borrower's counsel for them to take the actions described in the Termination Agreement to reflect the termination of the Old Lender Financing Agreements.

Very truly yours,

Eric Franklin Horvitz
