ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART PLAINTIFFS'
MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

PATENT

REEL: 027519 FRAME: 0662

On August 22, 2011 Plaintiffs filed a motion for partial summary judgment. This motion sought the following relief via an Order that:

(1) Affirms Plaintiffs' exclusive ownership in the Bullet Drop Compensator (BDC) scope technology as described in the utility patent application at issue (No.-US-2008-0202198-A1);

(2) Requires Defendants to cease utilization of Plaintiffs' BDC scope technology in their competing scopes;

(3) Affirms Plaintiffs' exclusive ownership in the online RFBC program; and

(4) Finds Defendants liable, under Wyoming law, for breach of contract and misappropriation of trade secrets due to their utilization of Plaintiffs' online RFBC program.

On September 26, 2011, Defendants filed an opposition to the motion. On October 17, 2011, Plaintiffs' filed a reply brief in support of the motion. Oral argument was heard on October 25, 2011. On November 21, 2011, the Court issued its Summary Judgment Decision Letter, which is incorporated herein by reference. Pursuant to the Court's findings and conclusions in its Decision Letter, the Court grants in part, and denies in part, Plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment as follows:

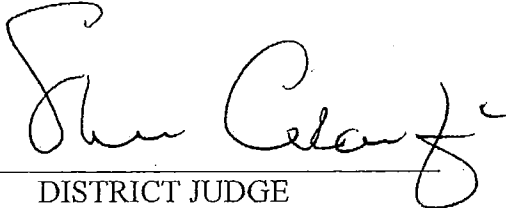

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECLARED that pursuant to the parties' Settlement Agreement, Aaron Davidson and Gunwerks relinquished any interest they had in the scope technology, as described in the utility patent application, to Huskemaw, including any right they had to use or practice the scope technology.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECLARED that pursuant to the parties' Settlement Agreement, Aaron Davidson and Gunwerks relinquished any interest they had in the RFBC program to Huskemaw, including any right they had to use or practice the program.

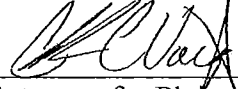

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Aaron Davidson and Gunwerks immediately cease utilization of the BDC scope technology, as described in the utility patent application.

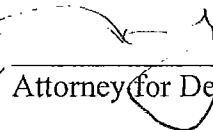

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that questions of fact exist which precludes a grant of summary judgment on Plaintiffs' claim for misappropriation of trade secrets.

DATED this 14th day of Dec, 2011.
