Debtor will not create, incur or permit to exist, will take all commercially reasonable actions to defend the Collateral against, and will take such other commercially reasonable action as is necessary to remove, any lien or claim on or to the Collateral, other than the liens created hereby, and other than as permitted pursuant to Section 11.2 of the Loan Agreement, and will take all commercially reasonable actions to defend the right, title and interest of Secured Party in and to any of the Collateral against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, Debtor shall not dispose of, conceal, transfer, sell or encumber any of the Collateral (including, but not limited to, cash proceeds) without Secured Party's prior written consent, even if such disposition is otherwise permitted in the Loan Agreement. Any such disposition, concealment, transfer or sale after the occurrence of an Event of Default shall constitute a wrongful conversion of the Collateral. Secured Party may obtain a temporary restraining order or other equitable relief to enforce Debtor's obligation to refrain from so impairing Secured Party's Collateral.

Section 4.4 Liens. Debtor will advise Secured Party promptly, in reasonable detail, (a) of any lien (other than liens created hereby or permitted under Section 11.2 of the Loan Agreement) on, or claim asserted against, Collateral and (b) of the occurrence of any other event which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the aggregate value of the Collateral or on the liens created hereunder.

(b) Debtor will not, except with respect to any Patent that Debtor shall reasonably determine is of immaterial economic value to it or otherwise reasonably determine so to do, do any act, or omit to do any act, whereby any Patent may become abandoned or dedicated. Without the prior written consent of Secured Party, Debtor shall not abandon any right to file a patent application, or abandon any pending patent application or patent if such abandonment would have a Material Adverse Effect on the business of Debtor.

(c) Debtor will promptly notify Secured Party if it knows, or has reason to know, that any application relating to any material Patent, Trademark or Copyright may become abandoned or dedicated, or of any material adverse determination or other material development (including, without limitation, the institution of, or any such determination or development in, any proceeding in the United States Patent and Trademark office or any court or tribunal in any country) regarding Debtor's ownership of any Patent, Trademark or Copyright, or its right to register the same or to keep and maintain the same.

(d) Whenever Debtor, either by itself or through any Secured Party, employee, licensee or designee, shall file a Patent Application, Trademark Application or for the registration of any Copyright with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office, or any similar office or agency in any other country or any political subdivision thereof, Debtor shall report such filing to Secured Party within ten (10) business days after such filing. Debtor shall immediately execute and deliver any and all reasonably necessary agreements, instruments, documents, and papers as Secured Party may reasonably request to evidence Secured Party's security interest in any newly filed Patent, Copyright or Trademark and the goodwill and general intangibles of Debtor relating thereto or represented thereby, and Debtor hereby constitutes Secured Party its attorney-in-fact to execute and file all such writings for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such attorney being hereby ratified and confirmed; such power being coupled with an interest is irrevocable until the Obligations are paid in full.

(e) Debtor, except with respect to any Patent, Trademark or Copyright Debtor shall reasonably determine is of immaterial economic value to it or it otherwise reasonably determines not to so do, will take all reasonable and necessary steps, including, without limitation, in any proceedings before any tribunal, office or agency in any other country or any political subdivision thereof, to maintain and pursue each application (and to obtain the relevant registration or Patent) and to maintain each Patent and each registration of Trademarks and Copyrights, including, without limitation, filing of applications, applications for reissue, renewal or extensions, the payment of maintenance fees, participation in reexamination, opposition and infringement proceedings, and the filing of renewal applications, affidavits of use and affidavits of incontestability, when appropriate. Any expenses incurred in connection with such activities shall be paid by Debtor.

(f) In the event Debtor knows or has reason to know that any material Patent, Trademark or Copyright included in the Collateral is infringed, misappropriated or diluted by a third party, Debtor shall promptly notify Secured

Party after it learns thereof and shall, unless Debtor shall reasonably determine that such Patent, Trademark or Copyright is of immaterial economic value to Debtor which determination Debtor shall promptly report to Secured Party, take all commercially reasonable steps necessary to protect such Patent, Trademark or Copyright including but not limited to suing for infringement, misappropriation or dilution, or take such other actions as Debtor shall reasonably deem appropriate under the circumstances to protect such Patent, Trademark or Copyright.

ARTICLE V

Debtor hereby ratifies all that said attorneys shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. This power of attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable when it becomes effective in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) This power of attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable so long as the Obligations remain outstanding. Secured Party shall be under no duty to exercise or withhold the exercise of any of the rights, powers, privileges, and options expressly or implicitly granted to Secured Party in this Agreement, and shall not be liable for any failure to do so or any delay in doing so. Secured Party shall not be liable for any act or omission or for any error of judgment or any mistake of fact or law in its individual capacity or in its capacity as attorney-in-fact except acts or omissions resulting from its gross negligence or willful misconduct. This power of attorney is conferred on Secured Party to protect, preserve, and realize upon its security interest in the Collateral. Secured Party's sole duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and preservation of the Collateral shall be to deal with it with reasonable care. Secured Party incurred in connection with such performance or compliance, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, shall be payable by Debtor to Secured Party on demand and shall constitute Obligations secured hereby.

Section 5.3 Financing Statements. Debtor expressly authorizes Secured Party to file financing statements showing Debtor as Debtor covering all or any portion of the Collateral in such filing locations as selected by Secured Party and authorizes, ratifies and confirms any financing statement filed prior to the date hereof by Secured Party in any jurisdiction showing Debtor as Debtor covering all or any portion of the Collateral.
