Typographical Error in Cover Sheet that Affects Title

Re: Assignment(s) for U.S Patent or Application Number 10/177,858

Previously Recorded At: 013765 / 0358

SIR:

This is a request to correct an obvious typographical error in a previously recorded Assignment Recordation Cover Sheet that accompanied an Inventor Assignment, there being no errors on the Assignment. The Application or Patent number in question, and the reel and frame identification information are provided immediately above. Copies of the Assignment and the original (defective) Recordation Cover Sheet are attached.

The obvious typographical error in the original Recordation Cover Sheet is one that affects title [an additional receiving party is accidentally named], and therefore the matter should be handled in accord with MPEP 323.01(a)(II). It is requested that the present explanatory letter also now be recorded, as is permitted under 37 CFR 3.11 (a), MPEP Section 313. Re-recording of the original Assignment with the new Corrected Recordation Cover Sheet is therefore respectfully requested. The circumstances of the obvious typographical error are as follows.

Pfizer Inc. headquartered in New York, New York is a pharmaceutical company that routinely files patent applications. Pfizer Products, Inc. is a subsidiary company of Pfizer Inc., and is headquartered in Groton, Connecticut. For many patent applications filed by Pfizer, the inventors execute assignments in favor of Pfizer Inc. (their employer) as the assignee of the invention for the United States, whereas Pfizer Products, Inc., is identified as the assignee of the same invention for all foreign nations (i.e. outside the United States). Thus, in a typical case, a Pfizer inventor assignment document recites in its first substantive paragraph that USA rights are owned by Pfizer Inc, and in its second substantive paragraph, the assignment goes on to recite that foreign rights are owned by Pfizer Products Inc. Then, when it comes time to record the assignment for USA purposes at the U.S. Patent Office, the USA recordation cover sheet should list ONLY ONE RECEIVING PARTY, Pfizer Inc.

Unfortunately, through administrative inattention, from time to time, a USA Recordation Cover Sheet would be prepared that accidentally listed BOTH Pfizer Inc, and Pfizer Products, Inc. as receiving Parties, for USA rights. Of course, this is not correct, since it is inconsistent with the text of the underlying assignment document, i.e. according to the actual Assignment there is ONLY ONE owner of the USA rights --Pfizer Inc.

However, on occasion, the attorney responsible for the case would then simply sign the erroneous Recordation Cover Sheet, and not spot the clerical error. Since the U.S. Patent Office act of recording is administrative, and the Office does not normally read assignments, but instead, simply records on the basis of the information provided on the Recordation Cover Sheet, this has led to the erroneous result that, in the affected applications and patents, U.S. Patent Office records appear to reflect that the USA rights are owned by two companies, when in fact, there is only one owner/assignee company -- Pfizer Inc. This error was recently discovered.

The undersigned hereby certifies that all facts recited herein are true, that the correction requested herein refers to an obvious clerical error which did not involve any deceptive intent, that the information on the new recordation cover sheet(s) is true and correct, and that any copies submitted herewith are true and correct copies of the originals.

The proper fee of $40 under 37 CFR 1.21(h) should be charged to Deposit Account No. 16-1445, and any deficiency in fees may be similarly charged.

Dated: 4/24/13
