Zachary L. Braunstein starting from February of 2013 has devoted a significant amount of:

- Time every day to enhance and promote above patents
- Invested into procurement of materials and production of prototype models
- Invested into development and promotion of the marketing of both patents, including hiring contract professionals to develop websites and presentation materials
- Invested into equipment (computers, printers, mobile devices) allocated solely for business related to patents, including the ones listed above
- Paid $3,600 for services of PRWeb to promote the patents over the social media networks

Zachary L. Braunstein, Frederick Y. Mah

Agreement

Zachary L. Braunstein plans to extend the investments to further promote the patents and fabricate required pre-production models, including expenses associated with developing tooling, test fixtures, product packing, manufacturing logistics, etc.

Zachary L. Braunstein plans to present the patents to respective Government offices, business communities, advertising agencies, including Internet and TV.

By assigning both patents to Zachary L. Braunstein, Frederick Y. Mah agrees to the following terms:

1) 3% compensation from all NET proceeds received by Zachary L. Braunstein from the above patents, including:

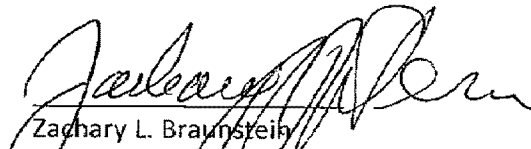

- Sale of patent
- Licensing of a patent
- Sales of products listed under patent

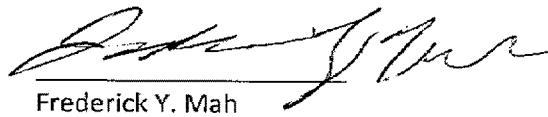

NET proceeds calculated by GAAP standards

2) Continue in providing technical support for both patents at approximately 4-6 man hours weekly, related to development of mechanical designs, documentation, general consulting, i.e. all important activities from the "mechanical designs" which will help to generate revenues listed in item (1) above

The completed and signed by Frederick Y. Mah original of the form PTO-1595 (Rev. 06-12) will be mailed to the USPTO, and the document will be also e-filed using available resources on the USPTO website.
