WHEREAS I, Chantal Matar (hereinafter the "Assignor"), am a co-inventor of the invention described in PCT Patent Application No. PCT/CA04/00389 filed March 15, 2004 entitled "Antioxidant Producing Bacterium and Uses Thereof" (hereinafter the "Patent Application");

WHEREAS, on or about January 30, 2006, the Université de Moncton (hereinafter the "Assignee"), having offices at 165 Massay avenue, Moncton, New Brunswick, E1A 3E9, Canada, finalized an agreement with the Assignor to take assignment of the whole right, title and interest in and to the Patent Application and all inventions described therein;

Now therefore, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Assignor confirms that it did sell, assign, and transfer, and by way of further assurance, the Assignor hereby sells, assigns and transfers to the Assignee, all its right, title and interest in and to the Patent Application, including in and to the inventions described therein, any patent application(s) claiming the benefit of priority thereof (such as United States Patent Application No. 10/548,739), and to all letters patent that may be granted for said inventions, including all continuations, divisionals, re-examination or reissues thereof, and to all corresponding rights, interests and privileges flowing therefrom, all said patents to be held and enjoyed by said Assignee to the full end of the term for which said patents are granted, as fully and entirely as said patents could have been held and enjoyed by said Assignor if this Assignment had not been made;
