(b) any applicable order, judgement or decree of any court of governmental authority;

(c) nor constitute a default under any agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound.

5. PROTECTION AND THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES

5.1 In relation to each Patent which is the subject matter of an assignment which has not been recorded and/or registered at the relevant patent offices, the Assignor shall have the right to file, prosecute and maintain such Patents and all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in connection therewith shall be for the account of the Assignee. The Assignor shall cooperate with the Assignee to keep the Assignee informed as to the status of all of the Patents. If the Assignor declines to exercise such rights to file, prosecute and maintain the aforementioned Patents, the Assignor shall provide the Assignee with notice of any such decision in reasonably sufficient time prior to any relevant deadlines applicable to any payment or filing that is due, and the Assignee shall have the right to file, prosecute and maintain such Patents at its own expense.

5.2 Until the assignment of the Patents has been recorded and/or registered at the relevant patent offices each of the Assignor and the Assignee shall immediately notify the other in writing, giving reasonable particulars, if any, of the following matters (in relation to a Patent which is the subject matter of an assignment that has not been so recorded and/or registered) come to its attention:

5.2.1 any actual, suspected or threatened infringement of any of the Patents;

5.2.2 any actual or threatened claim made in writing that any of the Patents is invalid;

5.2.3 any claim made or threatened in writing that exploitation of any of the Patents infringes the rights of any third party;

5.2.4 any person applies for, or is granted, a patent by reason of which that person may be, or has been, granted rights which conflict with any of the rights granted to the Assignee under this Agreement; and/or

5.2.5 any other form of attack, charge or claim to which the Patents become subject.

- 5.3 In respect of any of the matters listed in clause 5.2 (which, for the avoidance of doubt, occur before the assignment of the Patents have been recorded and/or registered at the relevant patent offices and relate only to any Patent the assignment of which has not been so recorded and/or registered):
- 5.3.1 the Assignee shall have control over, and conduct of, and shall defend all claims and proceedings brought against the Assignee and all costs and expenses shall be for the account of the Assignee;
 - 5.3.2 the Assignee shall not make any admissions of liability without the written consent of the Assignor;
 - 5.3.3 the Assignor shall provide the Assignee with reasonable assistance that it may reasonably request in the conduct of any such claims or proceedings and, if the Assignor elects not to provide such assistance it shall execute all documents which contain reasonable terms required for the Assignor to grant the Assignee a power of attorney in respect of acts of the Assignor which are reasonably necessary for the conduct of such claims or proceedings;
 - 5.3.4 the Assignee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to prosecute or defend any action relating to any of such matters, in its sole discretion, and shall bear the cost of any proceedings and shall be entitled to retain all sums recovered in any such action for its own account.
- 5.4 Until such time as the assignment of the Patents have been recorded and/or registered at the relevant patent offices and in relation to any Patent which is the subject matter of an assignment which has not been so recorded and/or registered:
- 5.4.1 the Assignee, in its discretion, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to file and prosecute any claims for infringement of any such Patent by any third party; and
 - 5.4.2 the Assignor shall provide reasonable assistance to the Assignee in the filing and prosecution of such claims, at the Assignee's expense, provided that the Assignee shall have sole control over the litigation.
- 5.5 To the extent the Assignor or the Assignee incurs costs and expenses which are expressed in this Agreement to be for the account of the Assignee or the Assignor (respectively), the Assignee or the Assignor shall promptly reimburse any of such costs and expenses incurred by the Assignor or the Assignee (respectively) upon receiving a written notice (and a reasonable amount of supporting evidence of such costs and expenses) to do so from the Assignor or the Assignee.

The Assignee shall (as primary obligor) pay, settle and/or discharge any payments, costs, expenses, obligations and liabilities of any description due from time to time after the date hereof (referred to collectively as the "Liabilities") to third parties in respect of the Patents, Improvements and intellectual property rights assigned, and other assets transferred, under clause 2.1 above provided that the Assignor delivers valid documentary evidence of the Liability (e.g. in the form of an invoice), and to the extent that such Liabilities are not paid, settled and/or discharged by the Assignee, the Assignee shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Assignor and hold the Assignor harmless from and against all losses (whether direct or indirect) damages, costs, actions, awards, penalties, fines, proceedings, claims, demands and liabilities (including without limitation, reasonable legal and other professional fees and expenses) which the Assignor may suffer, sustain, incur, pay or be put to by reason or on account of or arising from the Assignee's failure to pay, settle or otherwise discharge the Liabilities.

- 5.6 The Assignee shall defend, indemnify and hold the Assignor harmless against any liability, damages, cost, expense, claim, cause of action and/or loss (including all interest, penalties and legal and other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by the Assignor arising out of or in connection with the Assignee's exercise of its rights granted under this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the extent to which the exercise of such rights constitutes the infringement of a patent which is not a Patent).
- 5.7 In the event that the Assignee becomes aware of any fact, matter or circumstance which may lead to a claim under clause 5.6, it shall promptly provide written notice of the relevant details to the Assignor.
- 5.8 The Assignor shall, as soon as it becomes aware of a matter which may result in a claim under clause 5.6 which is subject to indemnification (a "Relevant Claim"):
- 5.8.1 give the Assignee written notice of the details of the matter;
 - 5.8.2 give the Assignee access to and allow copies to be taken of any materials, records or documents as the Assignee may reasonably require to take action under clause 5.8.3; and
 - 5.8.3 allow the Assignee the conduct of any defence of any such Relevant Claim with its own counsel; provided that the Assignor shall also have the right to participate in the defence of such Relevant Claim with counsel of its own choice at its own expense.
- 5.9 If a payment due from the Assignee under this clause 5 is subject to tax (whether by way of direct assessment or withholding at its source), the Assignor shall be entitled to receive from the Assignee such amounts as shall ensure that the net receipt, after tax, to the Assignor in respect of the payment is the same as it would have been were the payment not subject to tax.

6. FURTHER ASSURANCE

- 6.1 The Assignor shall execute all further documents as may be necessary or desirable to give full effect to the terms of this agreement. The Assignor further undertakes to assist the Assignee with the registration, recording and/or other notices, documents and forms whereby the assignments effected under this Agreement may be recorded and/or registered in each local territory and to sign and execute all such documents as may reasonably be requested by the Assignee. The Assignor appoints the Assignee as its attorney to effect matters referred to in this clause on its behalf (but at the Assignee's cost).
- 6.2 The obligations and warranties of the Inventors herein and in the Assignments are several.

7. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

- 7.1 This Assignment and any disputes or claims arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England.
- 7.2 The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of England have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with this agreement or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

In witness whereof this document has been executed as a deed on behalf of the parties hereto and is delivered and takes effect on the date stated at the beginning of it.
