2. Assignment of Intellectual Property Rights

Ancor hereby assigns absolutely to the Recipient all rights, title and interest in the Intellectual Property Rights anywhere in the world as of the Effective Date.

3. Consideration

In consideration for the assignment of the Intellectual Property Rights, the Recipient will:

- a) pay Ancor an amount to be separately agreed between the parties, such amount to be sufficient consideration; and
- b) take all steps and execute all documents that may be necessary for the Recipient to take to perfect the assignment contemplated by this Deed including the filing of documents with the relevant authorities within 180 days of the Effective Date.

4. Any Further Steps

4.1 Execution of Documents

Ancor undertakes to Recipient to execute all such documents and do all such things as may be necessary, proper or desirable to enable the Recipient:

- (a) to give full effect to this Deed; and
- (b) to fully enjoy and to prosecute the Intellectual Property Rights and any rights associated with them including taking all steps and executing all documents as may be necessary to perfect the assignment contemplated by this Deed including the filing of documents with the relevant authorities within 180 days of the Effective Date.

4.2 GST

- (a) The parties agree that any and all amounts and other consideration referred to in this Deed are exclusive of any GST and that if any GST is imposed on any supply made under this Deed, then the party making the supply will collect from the recipient, in addition to any consideration due for the supply.
- (b) The GST imposed on the supply is calculated by multiplying the amount or value of the consideration for the supply by the GST tax rate prevailing as at the date the supply is made. If the recipient of the supply is required to pay an additional amount for GST pursuant to this clause, then the recipient will pay the increased amount in the same manner and at the same time as the consideration, which may be due under this Deed.

5. Warranties
