Termination agreement

Dear Mr. Garcia de la Pena:

HPM America and myself financial situation makes not possible the payment of the installment payments agreed on our Patent and Invention Purchase Agreement dated on January 2, 2009 and claimed on your Payment default letter of September 2, 2009.

Due to this I offer you to terminate the agreement and avoid any potential legal action between us by accepting the return to you of the ownership of all the patents contained in this agreement as stated in clause number 9 of said agreement.

By signing below, you accept to not claim anything related to the above agreement, and HPM America and myself agree to transfer all patent rights back to Emmanuel Garcia de la Pena and to not claim anything related to above agreement either.

Very truly yours,
Buyer
