This Note is a non-revolving debt instrument.

The full amount of this Note, and the full amount of each additional note issued pursuant to the Purchase Agreement (together with this Note, the "Notes"), is secured by the collateral identified and described as security for Debtor's obligations under the Notes in the Security Agreement by and among Debtor and each of the Holders. ## COMMERCIAL SECURITY AGREEMENT

THIS COMMERCIAL SECURITY AGREEMENT (this "Security Agreement") is made by and among ADVANCED COMPUTER and COMMUNICATIONS, L.L.C., a Louisiana limited liability company ("Grantor"), and each other signatory hereto (a "Secured Party," and collectively the "Secured Parties") as of the date set forth below such Secured Party's signature hereto. The Grantor and the Secured Parties are the only parties hereto.

RECITALS

Pursuant to that certain Promissory Note Purchase Agreement dated December 23, 2014 (the "Purchase Agreement"), by and among Grantor (the "Company" under the Purchase Agreement) and the Secured Parties (the "Purchasers" under the Purchase Agreement), each Secured Party has agreed to lend to Grantor certain funds as evidenced by one or more Secured, Convertible Promissory Notes (the "Notes," each a "Note") registered in the name of and payable to such Secured Party on the terms set forth therein and in the Purchase Agreement.

In order to induce the loans made to Grantor under the Purchase Agreement, Grantor has agreed to grant each Secured Party a security interest in the collateral described herein as security for Grantor's obligations owed to such Secured Party under each Note held thereby pursuant to the terms thereof.

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Grant of Security Interest and Pledge; Intercreditor Agreements.

(a) Grantor hereby pledges, and grants a continuing security interest and pledge in and lien upon, the property described on Exhibit A, attached hereto (collectively and severally, the "Collateral") to each Secured Party to secure the payment and other performance of the Secured Obligations (as described and defined in Section 2 below) owed to each such Secured Party under the Note or Notes held thereby.

(b) Except as set forth and contemplated herein and in the Purchase Agreement, Grantor represents and warrants that the Collateral is not subject to any existing security interest, liens or other encumbrances and that Grantor has not sold, pledged, assigned, transferred, licensed or conveyed any of Grantor's interest in the Collateral.

(c) Each Secured Party hereby acknowledges and agrees that, if Grantor should cause an Event of Default hereunder (as defined below) : (i) he, she or it shall not be entitled to enforce his, her or its rights hereunder in respect of the Collateral for the recovery of any amount(s) in excess of the amount of the Secured Obligations owed to such Secured Party under the Purchase Agreement and the Note(s) held thereby; (ii) such Secured Party's security interest granted hereunder in respect of the Collateral is pari passu, and on a pro-rata basis, with all other security interests granted hereunder such that if the Collateral is insufficient to fully satisfy such Secured Party's Secured Obligations together with all other Secured Obligations then outstanding and owed to other Secured Parties, such Secured Party's rights to foreclose on and recover from the Collateral shall be of the same priority with (and neither senior nor subordinate to) such rights of all other Secured Parties, and the amount or amount(s) recoverable by such Secured Party shall be limited to his, her or its ratable portion of the value of the Collateral

(based on the ratio that the amount of the Secured Obligations then owed to such Secured Party bears to the total amount of all Secured Obligations then outstanding and owed to all Secured Parties).

SECTION 2. Secured Obligations. The grant of each security interest and pledge hereunder shall secure the following obligations (the "Secured Obligations"):

All of Grantor's indebtedness and other obligations owed and payable to each Secured Party under the Purchase Agreement (as evidenced by one or more Notes issued to such Secured Party under the Purchase Agreement), whether presently existing or arising in the future, whether direct or indirect, whether liquidated or contingent, and whether primary or secondary.

SECTION 3. Covenants. Grantor covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) Title to Collateral. Except as set forth and contemplated herein and in the Purchase Agreement, Grantor shall not create or permit the existence of claims, interests, liens, licenses, leases or other encumbrances against any of the Collateral. Grantor shall provide prompt written notice to Secured Party of any such future claims, interests, liens or encumbrances against any of the Collateral, and shall defend diligently Grantor's and each Secured Party's interests (including the priority of such interests) in all Collateral.

(b) Change in Registered Office. Grantor agrees not to change its registered office or domicile from Louisiana unless it has given thirty (30) days' prior written notice of its intention to do so to each Secured Party and executed all financing statements, financing statement amendments and other instruments, which a majority in interest of the Secured Parties may request in connection therewith and, if requested by a majority in interest of the Secured Parties, prior to the date on which Grantor proposes to take any such action, Grantor will, at its own cost and expense, cause to be delivered to each Secured Party an opinion of counsel, in form and content reasonably satisfactory to a majority in interest of the Secured Parties, as to the continued perfection and effect of such action on the priority of the security interests created hereunder.

(c) Further Assurances. Upon the request of a Secured Party, Grantor shall do all acts and things as such Secured Party may from time to time deem reasonably necessary or advisable to enable it to perfect, maintain and continue the perfection and priority of the security interest of such Secured Party in the Collateral, subject to the terms of the Purchase Agreement and the Note(s) held by such Secured Party, or to facilitate the exercise by such Secured Party of any rights or remedies granted to such Secured Party hereunder or provided by law. Without limiting the foregoing, Grantor agrees to execute, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to a majority in interest of the Secured Parties, such financing statements, continuation statements, amendments thereto, supplemental agreements, assignments, notices of assignments, and other instruments and documents as required hereunder, or under the Purchase Agreement, or as such majority in interest of the Secured Parties may reasonably from time to time request.

(d) Protection of Intellectual Property. Grantor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to continue to protect Grantor's rights in the Intellectual Property (as defined on Exhibit A, hereto), including the prosecution of all patents, copyrights and other protections offered by applicable law. Grantor shall notify each Secured Party as to any claims of infringement against Grantor and the existence of any infringement against the Intellectual Property.

SECTION 4. Event of Default. The following shall constitute an “Event of Default” under this Security Agreement: (a) Grantor’s default under or breach of either the Purchase Agreement or any Note (to the extent not earlier converted, prepaid or paid under the Purchase Agreement), which default or failure continues beyond any applicable cure period, (b) if any representation or warranty made by Grantor in this Security Agreement is false or misleading in any material respect on or as of the date made or deemed made or (c) the breach of or failure to perform or observe any material covenant or agreement contained in this Security Agreement, which breach or failure continues beyond any applicable cure period.

SECTION 5. Rights and Remedies; Reassignment.

(a) Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder, each Secured Party may declare all Secured Obligations owed thereto to be immediately due and payable and proceed against Grantor directly for payment, and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, including, but not limited to, the intercreditor agreements as set forth in this Security Agreement, may exercise any and all rights and remedies of a secured party in the enforcement of its security interest under the UCC, this Security Agreement or the Purchase Agreement, or any other applicable law. For purposes of this Security Agreement, “UCC” means the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in Chapter 9 of the Louisiana Commercial Laws (La. R.S. §§ 10:9-101, et seq.).

(b) Without limiting the general nature of the foregoing, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder, the Secured Parties, subject, in each instance, to all intercreditor agreements as set forth in this Security Agreement, shall have the following rights and remedies with respect to the Collateral, which rights and remedies are in addition to, and are not in lieu or limitation of, any other rights and remedies that may be provided in this Security Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, any Note(s), or any related documents, under the UCC, or at law or equity generally: the Secured Parties may cause the Collateral, or any part or parts thereof, to be immediately seized wherever found, and sold in accordance with the UCC, whether in term of court or in vacation, under ordinary or executory process, in accordance with applicable Louisiana law, to the highest bidder for cash, with or without appraisal, without the necessity of making additional demand, or of notifying Grantor or placing Grantor in default.

(c) Each Secured Party, either upon or in connection with (i) Grantor’s full satisfaction of the Secured Obligations owed to such Secured Party, (ii) conversion of the Note(s) held by such Secured Party in accordance with and pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, or (iii) such Secured Party’s performance of its obligations under Subsection 1.05(b) of the Purchase Agreement in respect of certain Grantor assets comprising Collateral or in respect of all or substantially all such assets pursuant to a “Substantial Collateral Release” (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), shall terminate and release his, her or its security interest entirely, or as and to the extent necessary to comply with the applicable provisions of the Purchase Agreement. Such Secured Party, in furtherance of such purpose and at Grantor’s sole cost and expense, shall (i) execute and deliver to Grantor all deeds, assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or proper to re-vest in Grantor full, or compliant title under the Purchase Agreement, in and to the Collateral, subject to any disposition thereof which may have been made by such Secured Party pursuant hereto, and (ii) execute, deliver and file as required all such additional documents and take such further actions as may be reasonably necessary to effect such security interest termination and release, including, without limitation, duly executing, delivering and filing UCC-3 termination statements in all relevant jurisdictions under the UCC.

SECTION 6. Additional Provisions.

(a) Amendment and Waiver. Without the prior written consent of a majority in interest of the Secured Parties, no amendment or waiver of, or consent to any departure by Grantor from, any provision hereunder shall be effective. Any such amendment, waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given. No delay or failure by a Secured Party to exercise any remedy hereunder shall be deemed a waiver thereof or of any other remedy hereunder. A waiver on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to or waiver of any remedy on any subsequent occasion.

(b) Costs and Attorneys' Fees. Except as prohibited by law, if at any time a Secured Party employs counsel in connection with the enforcement of any of such Secured Party's rights or remedies hereunder, all of such Secured Party's reasonable attorneys' fees arising from such services and all other reasonable expenses, costs, or charges relating thereto shall become part of the Secured Obligations secured hereby and be paid by Grantor on demand.

(c) Continuing Effect. This Security Agreement, the security interest of each Secured Party in the Collateral, and all other documents or instruments contemplated hereby shall continue in full force and effect until all of the Secured Obligations have been terminated, retired, forgiven, cancelled or satisfied.

(d) Binding Effect. This Security Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each Secured Party and its successors and assigns, and in the event of an assignment by a Secured Party of all or any of the Secured Obligations owed to such Secured Party, the rights hereunder, to the extent applicable to the indebtedness so assigned, may be transferred with such indebtedness. This Security Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Grantor and its successor and assigns; provided, that Grantor may not assign any of their rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of a majority in interest of the Secured Parties.

(e) Financing Statement. Grantor hereby grants each Secured Party the authority to file a UCC-1 Financing Statement, and any amendment(s) or renewal(s) thereof, in all appropriate filing offices in connection with the security interest granted to such Secured Party herein. The Secured Parties may elect, as a group of secured creditors granted security interests in the same collateral (i.e., the Collateral hereunder), to file a single UCC-1 Financing Statement and to amend and/or renew same based on the continuance, modification or termination of any or all of the Secured Parties' security interests granted hereunder and under the Purchase Agreement, as applicable.

(f) Governing Law. EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT GOVERNED BY APPLICABLE FEDERAL LAW, ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN THIS SECURITY AGREEMENT NOTWITHSTANDING, THE SECURITY INTERESTS IN THE

COLLATERAL GRANTED IN THIS SECURITY AGREEMENT, AND EACH SECURED PARTY'S REMEDIES IN THE COURTS SITTING IN AND FOR THE STATE OF LOUISIANA WITH RESPECT TO THE COLLATERAL SHALL BE GOVERNED BY LOUISIANA LAW WITHOUT REFERENCE TO CHOICE OF LAW DOCTRINE.

(g) Notices. Any notice, request or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Security Agreement shall be in writing and deemed to have been properly given when delivered in person, or when sent by telecopy or other electronic means and electronic confirmation of error free receipt is received or two days after being sent by certified or registered United States mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the party at the address set forth opposite such party's name on the signature pages to this Security Agreement. Any party may change its address for notices in the manner set forth above.

(h) Severability. The determination that any term or provision of this Security Agreement is unenforceable or invalid shall not affect the enforceability or validity of any other term or provision hereof.

(i) Entire Agreement. This Security Agreement, together with all documents referred to herein, including, but not limited to, the Purchase Agreement and each Note held by a Secured Party, constitute the entire agreement between Grantor and such Secured Party with respect to the matters addressed herein.

(j) Changes in Applicable Law. The parties acknowledge their intent that, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, each Secured Party shall receive, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and government policy, all rights necessary or desirable to obtain, use or sell the Collateral and to exercise all remedies available to such Secured Party under this Security Agreement, the UCC as in effect in any applicable jurisdiction or other applicable law. The parties further acknowledge and agree that, in the event of changes in the law or governmental law occurring subsequent to the date hereof that affect in any manner a Secured Party's rights of access to, or use or sale of, the Collateral, or the procedures necessary to enable such Secured Party to obtain such rights of access, use or sale, Secured Party and Grantor shall, subject to the approval of a majority in interest of the Secured Parties in accordance with Section 6(a) above, amend this Security Agreement in such manner as such Secured Party shall reasonably request in order to provide such Secured Party such rights to the greatest extent possible consistent with applicable law and governmental policy.

(k) Marshaling. No Secured Party shall be required to marshal any present or future security for (including but not limited to this Security Agreement and the Collateral subject to the security interest created hereby), or guarantees of, the Secured Obligations or any of them, or to resort to such security or guarantees in any particular order; and all of each Secured Party's rights hereunder and in respect of such securities and guaranties shall be cumulative and in addition to all other rights, however existing or arising. To the extent that it lawfully may, Grantor hereby agrees that it will not invoke any law relating to the marshaling of collateral, and to the extent that it lawfully may do so Grantor hereby irrevocably waives the benefits of all such laws. Except as otherwise provided by applicable law, no Secured Party shall have any duty as to the collection or protection of the Collateral or any income thereon, nor as to the preservation of rights against prior parties, nor as to the preservation of any rights pertaining thereto beyond the custody thereof in accordance with this Security Agreement.

(l) Authority of Secured Party. Grantor acknowledges that the rights and responsibilities of each Secured Party under this Security Agreement with respect to any action taken by such Secured Party or the exercise or non-exercise by such Secured Party of any option, voting right, request, judgment or other right or remedy provided for herein or resulting or arising out of this Security Agreement, shall be governed by the Purchase Agreement and the Note(s) issued thereunder to and held by such Secured Party, but, as between each Secured Party and Grantor, such Secured Party shall be conclusively presumed to be acting as agent for the benefit of itself with full and valid authority so to act or refrain from acting, and shall not be under any obligation or entitlement to make any inquiry respecting such authority.

(m) Supersession. This Security Agreement merges, supersedes and voids all prior security agreements between Grantor and any Secured Party, if any, and any such security agreement or security agreements shall hereafter have no further force or effect.

SECTION 7 Waiver of Jury Trial. Grantor and each Secured Party hereby expressly waives any right to trial by jury of any claim, demand, action or cause of action arising under this Security Agreement, the Purchase Agreement or any Note(s) held by such Secured Party or in any way connected with, or related or incidental to, the dealings of the parties hereto or any of them with respect to such Note(s) or the transactions related thereto, in each case whether now existing or hereafter arising, and whether sounding in contract or tort or otherwise. The parties further agree that Grantor and any Secured Party may file an original counterpart or a copy of this provision with any court as written evidence of the consent of the signatories hereto to the waiver of their right to trial by jury.
